- DEFENDANT KOKOWEEF AND CLARY'S MOTION TO COMPEL ANSWERS TO INTERROGATORIES PROPOUNDED TO PLAINTIFFS AND RESPONSE TO REQUEST TO PLAINTIFF (S) FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS...STATUS CHECK: DISCOVERY STATUS REPORT

Upon Court's inquiry, Counsel each gave a discovery status report. Court noted the significant disagreements, problems with communications and further noting the inappropriate personal attacks in this case. Colloquy regarding discovery, descriptions and identifications of documents noted in the joint case conference report, and exhibits admitted in the 07/30/08 hearing. Mr. Segel advised he would produce all documents to Plaintiff's. Court directed Defendant's to file a supplemental response to include the specific identification range, and index with page numbers.

COURT ORDERED: discovery cutoff 11/19/10; initial expert disclosures, that bear the burden of proof DUE 09/03/10; rebuttal expert disclosures DUE 10/15/10; dispositive motions TO BE FILED BY 12/17/10, and supplemental production by 07/16/10. COURT ORDERED, Trial VACATED and Court to issue a new scheduling order.

Court noted its concerns and admonished all parties regarding potential harassment of share holders. Jennifer Taylor provided disc copies of scanned documents to Counsel in open court. COURT ORDERED, Defendant's Motion to Compel Answers to Interrogatories, GRANTED IN PART. COURT FURTHER ORDERED, Motion for Sanctions, DENIED. Plaintiff's to respond in three weeks and if any issues, Counsel will bring them to the Court. Colloquy regarding Plaintiff's experts viewing documents, and confidential documents. Upon inquiry regarding the financial records to be turned over, Court reminded Counsel not to subpoena documents without notice and further, Counsel will need a protective order. Court directed Plaintiff's to return the financial records to Defendants and then may file a written motion to view them. Court Ordered, All Discovery to be heard in this Department, Case Deemed COMPLEX. Receipt of Copy (ROC) to be provided when delivering discovery.
