Dear Mr. Burke:

We have reviewed your grievance regarding attorney Patrick Clary. After considering the correspondence from both you and Mr. Clary, along with court records from Ted Burke v. Larry Hahn, Case Number 08-A-558629, in the Eighth Judicial District Court, the Office of Bar Counsel has determined that, at this time, your concerns would be more appropriately handled by the court presiding over your case. Accordingly, the grievance has been dismissed and, as such, this matter is being closed.

Should the presiding court render any findings which indicate professional misconduct by Mr. Clary, you may submit that information along with any supporting documentation for reconsideration. We provide you with this information as our experience with the Disciplinary Boards of the State Bar, and its panels, indicates that they prefer not to act as a substitute for the civil court process.

I regret that we are unable to assist you further at this time. However, we thank you for bringing this matter to the attention of our office.

Sincerely,
