Re: HAHN ET AL. ADV BURKE ET AL.

Dear Mr. Beller:

This letter is being sent as a follow up to our conversation today regarding the above referenced matter. We appreciate your taking the time to speak with us. Hopefully, we can continue the open line of communication.

As you are aware, we will represent our clients with vigor and we would expect the same from you. While doing so, we will view this matter with open eyes. If you are able to provide us with evidence of intentional, wrongful conduct by Mr. Hahn, we will consider this information in advising him regarding a potential resolution of this matter.

It is our understanding that you will provide us with the report of the forensic accountants by Friday, May 9, 2008. We look forward to reviewing the documents. If there is a problem doing so, please let us know.

During our discussion, you questioned the propriety of the removal of the three directors by the shareholders. We advised you that they were removed pursuant to the terms of the Bylaws. You then stated that the Bylaws cannot conflict with the Nevada Revised Statutes. While this may, or may not, be correct, we advised you that the Bylaws parrot the statute.

You stated that you did not have a copy of the Bylaws and were not aware of any statute that allowed the removal of directors without a meeting and notice to all shareholders and directors. In an effort to alleviate this issue, we agreed to provide you with a copy of Bylaws and the statutes that authorized the action that had been taken. The Bylaws are enclosed and we have provided you with the citation, and language, from the applicable statutes.

NRS §78.320 provides, in pertinent part:

- (2) Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws, any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the stockholders may be taken without a meeting if, before or after the action, a written consent thereto is signed by stockholders holding at least a majority of the voting power, except that if a different proportion of voting power is required for such an action at a meeting, then that proportion of written consents is required.
- (3) In no instance where action is authorized by written consent need a meeting of stockholders be called or notice given.

NRS §78.335(1) provides:

Except as otherwise provided in this section, any director or one or more of the incumbent directors may be removed from office by the vote of stockholders representing not less than two-thirds of the voting power of the issued and outstanding stock entitled to vote.

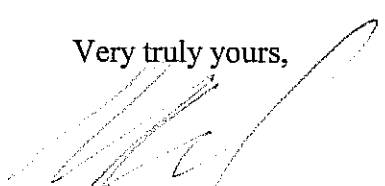

The Bylaws provide, in paragraph 10:

- (10) REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS. Any one or more of the directors may be removed either with or without cause at any time by the vote of written consent of the stockholders representing not less than two-thirds of the issued and outstanding capital stock entitled to voting power.

Finally, we have enclosed a copy of the Written Consent of Stockholders to Removal of Directors of Kokoweef, Inc., a Nevada corporation that was sent to, and received from, in excess of two thirds (2/3) of the voting stock of Kokoweef. Based upon the foregoing, it is clear that the removal of Mr. Burke, Mr. Kehoe and Mr. Dutchik was properly completed in conformity with the Bylaws and Nevada Revised Statutes.

We trust this information satisfies your needs. If you have any other questions, please feel free to contact us. We look forward to the receipt of your forensic report.

Very truly yours,

M Nelson Segel

ARTICLE I

OFFICES

SECTION 1. PRINCIPAL OFFICE. The principal office of the corporation shall be located in the City of North Las Vegas, Clark County, Nevada.

SECTION 2. OTHER OFFICES. In addition to the principal office at North Las Vegas, Nevada, other offices may also be maintained at such other places, either within or without the State of Nevada, as may be designated from time to time by the board of Directors, where any and all business of the corporation may be transacted, and where meetings of the stockholders and of the directors may be held with the same effect as though done or held at said principal office.

ARTICLE II

MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. ANNUAL MEETINGS. The annual meeting of the stockholders, commencing with the year 2007, shall be held at the principal office of the corporation at North Las Vegas, Nevada, or at such other places as may be specified or fixed in the notice of such meetings, on the first Sunday of June of each and every year at 1:00pm local time, for the election of directors and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before said meeting. If the day fixed for the annual meeting shall be a legal holiday, such meeting shall be held on the next succeeding business day. If the election of Directors shall not be held on the day designated herein for any annual meeting, or at the adjournment thereof, the Board of Directors shall cause the election to be held at the meeting of the stockholders as soon thereafter as may conveniently be held.

SECTION 2. NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING. The Secretary shall mail, in the manner provided in Section 5 of Article II of these By-Laws, or deliver a written or printed notice of each annual meeting to each stockholder of record, entitled to vote thereat, or may notify by telegram, at least ten and not more than sixty days before the date of such meeting.

SECTION 3. PLACE OF MEETING. The Board of Directors may designate any place either within or without the State of Nevada, as the place of meeting for any annual meeting or for any special meeting called by the Board of Directors. A waiver of notice signed by all stockholders may designate any place either within or without the State of Nevada, as the place for the holding of such meeting. If no designation is made, or if a special meeting be otherwise called, the place of meeting shall be the principal office of the corporation in the State of Nevada, except as otherwise provided in Section 6, Article II of these By-Laws, entitled "Meeting of All Stockholders."

SECTION 4. SPECIAL MEETINGS. Special meetings of the stockholders shall be held at the principal office of the corporation or at such other place as shall be specified or fixed in a notice thereof. Such meetings of the stockholders may be called at any time by the President or Secretary, or by a majority of the Board of Directors then in office, and shall be called by the President with or without Board approval on the written request of the holders of record of at least fifty per cent (50%) of the number of shares of the corporation then outstanding and entitled to vote, which written request shall state the object of such meeting.

SECTION 5. NOTICE OF MEETINGS. Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President or the Secretary, to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail, addressed to the stockholder at his address as it appears on the records of the corporation, with postage prepaid.

Any stockholder may at any time, by a duly signed statement in writing to that effect, waive any statutory or other notice of any meeting, whether such statement be signed before or after such meeting.

SECTION 6. MEETING OF ALL STOCKHOLDERS. If all the stockholders shall meet at any time and place, either within or without the State of Nevada, and consent to the holding of the meeting at such time and place, such meeting shall be valid without call or notice and at such meeting any corporate action may be taken.

SECTION 7. QUORUM. At all stockholders' meetings, the presence in person or by proxy of the holders of a majority of the outstanding stock entitled to vote shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a lesser number may adjourn to some future time not less than seven nor more than twenty-one days later, and the Secretary shall thereupon give at least three days notice by mail to each stockholder entitled to vote who is absent from such meeting.

SECTION 8. MODE OF VOTING. At all meetings of the stockholders the voting may be vive voce, but any qualified voter may demand a stock vote whereupon such stock vote shall be taken by ballot, each of which shall state the name of the stockholder voting and the number of shares voted by him and, if such ballot be cast by proxy, it shall also state the name of such proxy; provided, however, that the mode of voting prescribed by statute for any particular case shall be in such case followed.

SECTION 9. PROXIES. At any meeting of the stockholders, any stockholder may be represented and vote by a proxy or proxies appointed by an instrument in writing. In the event any such instrument in writing shall designate two or more persons to act as proxies, a majority of such persons present at the meeting, or, if only one shall be present, then that one shall have and may exercise all of the powers conferred by such written instrument upon all of the persons so designated unless the instrument shall otherwise provide. No such proxy shall be valid after the expiration of six months from the date of its execution, unless coupled with an interest, or unless the person executing it specified therein the length of time for which it is to continue in force, which in no case shall exceed seven years from the date of its execution. Subject to the above, any proxy duly executed is not revoked and continues in full force and effect until an instrument revoking it or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date is filed with the secretary of the corporation. At no time shall any proxy be valid which shall be filed less than ten hours before the commencement of the meeting.

SECTION 10. VOTING LISTS. The officer or agent in charge of the transfer books for shares of the corporation shall make, at least three days before each meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order with the number of shares held by each, which list for a period of two days prior to such meeting shall be kept on file at the registered office of the corporation and shall be subject to inspection by any stockholder at any time during the whole time of the meeting. The original share ledger or transfer book, or duplicate thereof, kept in this state, shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the stockholders entitled to examine such list or share ledger or transfer book or to vote at any meeting of stockholders.

SECTION 11. CLOSING TRANSFER BOOKS OR FIXING OF RECORD DATE. For the purpose of determining stockholders entitled to notice or to vote for any meeting of stockholders, the Board of Directors of the corporation may provide that the stock transfer books be closed for a stated period but not to exceed in any case sixty (60) days before such determination. If the stock transfer books be closed for the purpose of determining stockholders entitled to notice of a meeting of stockholders, such books shall be closed for at least fifteen days immediately preceding such meeting. In lieu of closing the stock transfer books, the Board of Directors may fix in advance a date in any case to be not more than sixty (60) days, nor less than ten (10) days prior to the date on which the particular action, requiring such determination of stockholders, is to be taken. If the stock transfer books are not closed and no record date is fixed for determination of stockholders entitled to receive payment of a dividend, the date on which notice of the meeting is mailed or the date on which the resolution of the Board of Directors declaring such dividend is adopted, as the case may be, shall be the record date for such determination of shareholders.

SECTION 12. VOTING OF SHARES. Each outstanding share entitled to vote shall be entitled to one vote upon each matter submitted to vote at a meeting of stockholders.

SECTION 13. VOTING OF SHARES BY CERTAIN HOLDERS. Shares standing in the name of another corporation, domestic or foreign, may be voted by such officer, agent or proxy as the By-Laws of such corporation may prescribe, or, in the absence of such provision, as the Board of Directors of such corporation may determine.

Shares standing in the name of a deceased person may be voted by his administrator or executor, either in person or by proxy. Shares standing in the name of a guardian, conservator or trustee may be voted by such fiduciary either in person or by proxy, but no guardian, conservator, or trustee shall be entitled, as such fiduciary, to vote shares held by him without a transfer of such shares into his name.

Shares standing in the name of a receiver may be voted by such receiver, and shares held by or under the control of a receiver may be voted by such receiver without the transfer thereof into his name if authority so to do be contained in an appropriate order of the court at which such receiver was appointed.

A stockholder whose shares are pledged shall be entitled to vote such shares until shares have been transferred into the name of the pledgee, and thereafter the pledgee shall be entitled to vote the shares so transferred.

Shares of its own stock belonging to this corporation shall not be voted, directly or indirectly, at any meeting and shall not be counted in determining the total number of outstanding shares at any time, but shares of its own stock held by it in a fiduciary capacity may be voted and shall be counted in determining the total number of outstanding shares at any given time.

SECTION 14. INFORMAL ACTION BY STOCKHOLDERS. Any action required to be taken at a meeting of the stockholders or any other action which may be taken at a meeting of the stockholders except the election of directors may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing setting forth the action so taken shall be signed by all of the stockholders entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof.

ARTICLE III

DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. GENERAL POWERS. The Board of Directors shall have the control and general management of the affairs and business of the corporation. Such directors shall in all cases act as a Board, regularly convened, by a majority, and they may adopt such rules and regulations for the conduct of their meetings and the management of the corporation, as they may deem proper, not inconsistent with these By-Laws, the Articles of Incorporation and the laws of the State of Nevada. The Board of Directors shall further have the right to delegate certain other powers to the Executive Committee as provided in these By-Laws.

SECTION 2. THE NUMBER OF DIRECTORS. The affairs and business of this corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors consisting of ^{BY LAWS} three (3) members, at least one of whom shall be a citizen of the United States, and all of whom shall be of full age.

SECTION 3. ELECTION. The Directors of the corporation shall be elected at the annual meeting of the stockholders, except as hereinafter otherwise provided for the filling of vacancies. Each director shall hold office for a term of one year and until his successor shall have been duly chosen and shall have qualified, or until his death, or until he shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

SECTION 4. VACANCIES IN THE BOARD. Any vacancy in the Board of Directors occurring during the year through death, resignation, removal or other cause, including vacancies caused by an increase in the number of directors, shall be filled for the unexpired portion of the term by a majority vote of the Directors present, provided they constitute a quorum, at any special meeting of the Board called for that purpose, or at any regular meeting thereof; provided, however, that in the event the remaining directors do not represent a quorum of the number set forth in Section 2 hereof, a majority of such remaining directors may elect directors to fill any vacancies then existing.

SECTION 5. DIRECTORS MEETINGS. Annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held each year immediately following the annual meeting of the stockholders. Other regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall from time to time by resolution be prescribed. No further notice of such annual or regular meeting of the Board of Directors need be given.

SECTION 6. SPECIAL MEETINGS. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by or at the request of the President or any two directors. The person or persons authorized to call special meetings of the Board of Directors may fix any place, either within or without the State of Nevada, as the place for holding any special meeting of the Board of Directors called by them.

SECTION 7. NOTICE. Notice of any special meeting shall be given at least twenty-four hours previous thereto by written notice if personally delivered, or five days previous thereto if mailed to each director at his business address, or by telegram. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to have been delivered when deposited in the United States mail so addressed, with postage thereon prepaid. If notice is given by telegram, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when the telegram is delivered to the telegraph company. Any director may waive notice of any meeting. The attendance of a director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

SECTION 8. CHAIRMAN. At all meetings of the Board of Directors, the President shall serve as Chairman, or in the absence of the President, the directors present shall choose by majority vote a director to preside as Chairman.

SECTION 9. QUORUM AND MANNER OF ACTING. A majority of the directors, whose number is designated in Section 2 herein, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors. In the absence of a quorum, the majority of the directors present may adjourn any meeting from time to time until a quorum be had. Notice of any adjourned meeting need not be given. The directors shall act only as a Board and the individual directors shall have no power as such.

SECTION 10. REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS. Any one or more of the directors may be removed either with or without cause at any time by the vote or written consent of the stockholders representing not less than two-thirds of the issued and outstanding capital stock entitled to voting power.

SECTION 11. VOTING. At all meetings of the Board of Directors, each director is to have one vote, irrespective of the number of shares of stock that he may hold.

SECTION 12. COMPENSATION. By resolution of the Board of Directors, the directors may be paid their expenses, if any, of attendance at each meeting of the Board, and may be paid a fixed sum for attendance at meetings or a stated salary of directors. No such payment shall preclude any director from serving the corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

SECTION 13. PRESUMPTION OF ASSENT. A director of the corporation who is present at a meeting of the Board of Directors at which action on any corporate matter is taken, shall be conclusively presumed to have assented to the action taken unless his dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless he shall file his written dissent to such action with the person acting as the secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof or shall forward such dissent by certified or registered mail to the Secretary of the corporation immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent shall not apply to a director who voted in favor of such action.

ARTICLE IV

SECTION 1. NUMBER AND ELECTION. The Board of Directors may, in its discretion, appoint from its membership an Executive Committee of two or more directors, each to serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. AUTHORITY. The Executive Committee is authorized to take any action which the Board of Directors could take, except that the Executive Committee shall not have the power either to issue or authorize the issuance of shares of capital stock, to amend the By-Laws, or to take any action specifically prohibited by the By-Laws or a resolution of the Board of Directors. Any authorized action taken by the Executive Committee shall be as effective as if it had been taken by the full Board of Directors.

SECTION 3. REGULAR MEETINGS. Regular meetings of the Executive Committee may be held within or without the State of Nevada at such time and place as the Executive Committee may provide from time to time.

SECTION 4. SPECIAL MEETINGS. Special meetings of the Executive Committee may be called by or at the request of the President or any member of the Executive Committee.

SECTION 5. NOTICE. Notice of any special meeting shall be given at least one day previous thereto by written notice, telephone, telegram or in person. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of a regular or special meeting of the Executive Committee need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting. A member may waive notice of any meeting of the Executive Committee. The attendance of a member at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a member attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

SECTION 6. QUORUM. A majority of the members of the Executive Committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Executive Committee; provided that if fewer than a majority of the members are present at said meeting a majority of the members present may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice.

SECTION 7. MANNER OF ACTING. The act of the majority of the members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Executive Committee, and said Committee shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings which shall at all times be open for inspection by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 8. PRESUMPTION OF ASSENT. A member of the Executive Committee who is present at a meeting of the Executive Committee at which action on any corporate matter is taken, shall be conclusively presumed to have assented to the action taken unless his dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless he shall file his written dissent to such action with the person acting as secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof, or shall forward such dissent by certified or registered mail to the Secretary of the corporation immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent shall not apply to a member of the Executive Committee who voted in favor of such action.

The Assistant Secretaries as thereunto authorized by the Board of Directors may sign with the President or Vice-President certificates for shares of the capital stock of the corporation, the issue of which shall have been authorized by resolution of the Board of Directors. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries shall, in general, perform such duties as may be assigned to them by the Treasurer or the Secretary respectively, or by the President or by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VI

INDEMNIFICATION OF OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

ARTICLE VII

CONTRACTS, LOANS, CHECKS AND DEPOSITS

SECTION 3. CHECKS, DRAFTS, ETC. All checks, drafts or other orders for payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers, agent or agents of the corporation and in such manner as shall from time to time be determined by resolutions of the Board of Directors.

The certificates shall be numbered in the order of their issue, shall be signed by the President or the Vice-President and by the Secretary or the Treasurer, or by such other person or officer as may be designated by the Board of Directors; provided, however, that no certificates shall be both signed and countersigned by the same person; and the seal of the corporation shall be affixed thereto, which said signatures and seal may be authenticated by facsimiles of the signatures of the said duly designated officers and of the seal of the corporation. Every certificate authenticated by a facsimile of such signatures and seal must be countersigned by a Transfer Agent to be appointed by the Board of Directors, before issuance.

The person registered on the books of the corporation as the owner of any shares of stock shall be entitled to all the rights of ownership with respect to such shares.

SECTION 3. REGULATIONS. The Board of Directors may make such rules and regulations as it may deem expedient not inconsistent with the By-Laws or with the Articles of Incorporation, concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificates for shares of stock of the corporation. It may appoint a transfer agent or a registrar of transfers, or both, and it may require all certificates to bear the signature of either or both.

SECTION 4. LOST CERTIFICATES. The Board of Directors may direct a new certificate or certificates to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming the certificate of stock to be lost or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate or certificates, the Board of Directors may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, require the owner of such lost or destroyed certificate or certificates, or his legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it shall require and/or give the corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost or destroyed.

ARTICLE IX

DIVIDENDS

SECTION 1. The corporation shall be entitled to treat the holder of any share or shares of stock as the holder in fact thereof and, accordingly, shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any other person, whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof, except as expressly provided by the laws of Nevada.

SECTION 2. Dividends on the capital stock of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation, if any, may be declared by the Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting, pursuant to law.

SECTION 3. The Board of Directors may close the transfer books in its discretion for a period not exceeding fifteen days preceding the date fixed for holding any meeting, annual or special, of the stockholders, or the day appointed for the payment of a dividend.

SECTION 4. Before payment of any dividend or making any distribution of profits, there may be set aside out of funds of the corporation available for dividends, such sum or sums as the directors may from time to time, in their absolute discretion, think proper as a reserve fund to meet contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for repairing or maintaining any property of the corporation, or for any such other purpose as the directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation, and the directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

ARTICLE X

SEAL

The Board of Directors shall provide a corporate seal which shall be in the form of a circle and shall bear the full name of the corporation, the year of its incorporation and the words "Corporate Seal, Nevada".

ARTICLE XI

FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year of the corporation shall end on the 31st day of December of each year.

ARTICLE XII

WAIVER OF NOTICE

Whenever any notice whatever is required to be given under the provisions of these By-Laws, or under the laws of the State of Nevada, or under the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation, a waiver in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice.

ARTICLE XIII

AMENDMENTS

There By-Laws may be altered, amended or repealed and new By-laws may be adopted at any regular or special meeting of the stockholders by a vote of the stockholders owning a majority of the shares and entitled to vote thereat. These new By-laws may also be altered, amended or repealed and the new By-Laws may be adopted at any regular or special meeting of the board of directors of the corporation (if notice of such alteration or repeal be contained in the notice of such special meeting) by a majority vote of the directors present at the meeting at which a quorum is present, but any such amendment shall not be inconsistent with or contrary to the provision of any amendment adopted by the stockholders.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that the undersigned, being the secretary of KOKOWEEF, INC, a Nevada corporation, hereby acknowledges that the above and forgoing By-Laws were duly adopted as the By-Laws of said corporation on the 10th day of December 2006.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereunto subscribed my name this tenth day of December 2006

Ted R. Burke - Secretary
