MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES:

I. INTRODUCTION:

Defendants' Motion to Compel lacks anything other than the assertions of their counsel that their discovery is proper. There is no case law supporting the assertions and the affidavit/declaration of its counsel fails to provide any additional support to compel the responses of Plaintiffs. Additionally, Defendants' request for hearing this matter on an Order Shortening

ROBERTSON & VICK, LLP

Time does not comport with the rules governing the shortening of time and demonstrates Defendants' continued bad faith in this litigation.

II. STATEMENT OF FACTS

A. Procedural History and Statement of Facts:

On May 21, 2010, counsel for Plaintiff met and conferred with counsel for Kokoweef on a number of items, including Plaintiffs' Responses to Defendants' overbroad, compound, and unintelligible interrogatories and requests for production. Counsel for Plaintiff agreed to answer certain interrogatories, but, as permitted under the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure, maintained certain objections. Further, counsel for Plaintiff agreed to respond to additional Interrogatories if they were reworded. Counsel for Defendants refused to reword his Interrogatories.

At 4:10 p.m. yesterday afternoon, May 25, 2010, while counsel for Plaintiff was on a conference call with another client, counsel for Defendant hand-delivered the instant Motion to Compel. Additionally, today, another hand-delivery was made at 10:30 a.m. containing Defendants' so-called Status Report to the Court Regarding Discovery. The Affidavits in support of the Motion to Compel and the Status Report contain the predictable disparagement of counsel for Plaintiff that has characterized the Defendants' consistent approach to this litigation. This barrage of belittling commentary comes not only from counsel for Kokoweef but counsel for the Hahn defendants as well. See Exhibit 1, correspondence from M. Nelson Segel and the response of Alex Robertson thereto.

III. LEGAL AUTHORITY:

A. STANDARD FOR THRESHHOLD DETERMINATION ON MOTIONS

EDCR 2.20(f) states that: "A memorandum of points and authorities which consists of bare citations to statutes, rules, or case authority does not comply with this rule and the court may decline to consider it." Defendants' Motion contains no supporting points and authorities to support their claim that Plaintiffs should be compelled to respond to their compound and overbroad interrogatories.

ROBERTSON & VICK, LLP 28

B. DEFENDANTS DISCOVERY IS OUTSIDE THE BOUNDS OF NRCP 26

NRCP 33 governs interrogatories and states:

- (a) Availability. Without leave of court or written stipulation, any party may serve upon any other party written interrogatories, not exceeding 40 in number including all discrete subparts, to be answered by the party served or, if the party served is a public or private corporation or a partnership or association or governmental agency, by any officer or agent, who shall furnish such information as is available to the party. Leave to serve additional interrogatories shall be granted to the extent consistent with the principles of Rule 26(b)(2).
- (b) Answers and Objections:

(2) The answers are to be signed by the person making them, and the objections signed by the attorney making them.

Case law interpreting this Rule clearly indicates that Defendants' Interrogatories are objectionable because they are overbroad, compound, unintelligible and have the potential to subject the party responding to undue harassment. While the Nevada Supreme Court has not weighed in extensively on discovery disputes, the drafters of the 2004 Amendment to NRCP 33 noted: "The rule is amended to conform to the federal rule, except the limit on the number of interrogatories." Therefore, the drafters intended litigants in Nevada to be able to rely upon federal law and cases.

1. Defendants' Interrogatories Nos. 7-9, and 14-26 are overbroad and Plaintiffs should not be compelled to respond.

This span of Interrogatories all improperly seek a blanket narrative account of the case, which has been deemed by the federal courts as "too broad" for discovery purposes. See United States v. Renault, Inc., 27 F.R.D. 23 (S.D. NY 1960) (sustaining objections to interrogatories which sought extremely comprehensive outlines of legal theories); Greene v. Raymond, 41 F.R.D. 11, 14 (D. Colo. 1966) ("Even more frequently, interrogatories too indefinite or all-inclusive have been struck down" as being irrelevant) (citing, Wedding v. Tallant Transfer Co., 37 F.R.D. 8 (D. Ohio 1963), Stovall v. Gulf & South Am. S. S. Co., 30 F.R.D. 152 (D. Tex. 1961); Webster Motor Car Co. v. Packard Motor Car Co., 16 F.R.D. 350 (D. D.C. 1955). See also Fisherman & Merchants Bank v. Burin, 11 F.R.D. 142, 143-44 (D. Cal. 1951) (concluding that a party should not have to prepare, in advance of a trial, a complete summary of the evidence which will be presented at the trial of the action on the merits).

ROBERTSON & VICK, LLP

2. The majority of Defendants' Interrogatories are compound and result in Interrogatories exceeding the number permitted under NRCP 33.

Throughout Defendants' Interrogatories, Defendants are seeking responses on discrete subparts to their Interrogatories. While Defendants can serve compound interrogatories, they cannot do so as a means to circumvent the forty number limit in NRCP 33. See e.g., Banks v. Office of Senate Sergeant-at-Arms, 222 F.R.D. 7 (D.D.C. 2004) ) (compound questions demanding documents, and raising topics: of employee's evaluations, employee's loss of certain duties because of them, and what information was provided to the evaluators and from whom did it come would be counted as four interrogatories for purposes of numerical restriction on interrogatories).

Accordingly, Plaintiff should not be required to respond to the Interrogatories, as numbered by Defendants because with the compound interrogatories, those numbers exceed the forty interrogatories permitted by NRCP 33.

3. Defendants' Interrogatory Nos. 28-30 are irrelevant and will result in harassment of Plaintiffs.

The Interrogatories numbered 28-30 by Defendants are, pursuant to NRCP 26 being issued solely to harass Plaintiffs. Witness testimony and documents issued to other shareholders by counsel for Defendants confirm that the sole purpose of this discovery is to harass Plaintiffs.

Counsel for Plaintiff met with Ralph Lewis. Mr. Lewis played a voice mail left on his cellular phone from Mr. Hahn that threatened any shareholder helping Plaintiffs "wouldn't see a dime". See Affidavit of Jennifer L. Taylor attached hereto. Clearly, Defendants' sole intent in seeking this information is to provide a further list of shareholders to threaten them with stripping of their rights. Such a clear threats mean that this interrogatory falls outside of permissible discovery under NRCP 26, and Plaintiffs should be precluded from needing to respond. See Bachman v. Collier, 23 F.R. Serv 2d 1461 (Dist. Col 1977) (preventing Defendants, through a protective order, from interrogatories to unnamed class action plaintiffs, which represented outrageous and needless invasion of privacy and revealed on their face calculated effort to harass and discourage class members).

Defendants' actions, even at the outset of this litigation, evidence their intent to harass and harm any dissenting shareholders. Specifically, on or about April 2008, the Plaintiffs in this action who had been board members were all removed from the board. Additionally, during the July 2008 evidentiary hearing, Larry Hahn testified that any shares issued to the Plaintiffs based upon work performed, had been rescinded.

4. Defendants' Interrogatories and Requests for Production which seek responses on claims that have been dismissed are overly broad and irrelevant, and intended only to harass Plaintiffs.

NRCP 26 permits discovery regarding any matter . . . . which is relevant to the subject matter involved in the pending action. However, on January 29, 2009, Judge Denton issued an Order which dismissed the following numbered causes of action: 1, 2, 3, 5, and 6. Yet, Defendants seek information and documents related to these causes of action. Clearly, these fall outside the parameters of NRCP 26 and Plaintiffs should not be compelled to answer them.

IV. CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing, Defendants' Motion to Compel should be Denied.

PLAINTIFFS' COUNTER-MOTION FOR SANCTIONS FOR KOKOWEEF'S FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH ORDER

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES:

I. INTRODUCTION:

Despite being ordered to Respond to Plaintiffs' Requests for Production and to sign that response, Defendants still have failed to do so, and continue to simply assert that Plaintiffs have been provided all the documents, when it is clear that this is not the case. Further, it is clear that absent continued court intervention and oversight, Defendants will not properly comply with the Court's Order.

II. STATEMENT OF FACTS

A. Procedural History and Statement of Facts:

As previously set out in great detail in Plaintiffs' Motion to Compel Responses to Requests for Production, filed in February 2010, on August 14, 2009, Plaintiffs personally served a Notice of Deposition Pursuant to NRCP 30(b)(6) of the Custodian and Keeper of Records of Kokoweef, Inc. (hereafter the "Deposition Notice"). Since that date, Plaintiffs have been attempting, in vain and at great time and expense to obtain Response to those Requests.

On March 30, 2010, the Court heard arguments on Plaintiffs' Motion, and ordered that Defendant Kokoweef respond to the Requests for Production. A true and correct copy of the transcript is attached hereto as Ex. "2". On April 22, 2010, an order reflecting the Court's ruling was entered. A true and correct copy of that Order is attached hereto as Ex. "3". The Order stated that Kokoweef was to provide Plaintiffs with a "formal written response" pursuant to NRCP 34 to the Request for Production of Documents no later than April 14, 2010.

On April 14, 2010, just before close of business, Defendant Kokoweef served upon Plaintiffs its Response to Request for Production of Documents, a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto as Ex. "4" and is hereafter referred to as "the Responses". The Responses included an index allegedly identifying documents responsive to each request. It further included a disk, identified as the "New Disk", which had additional unbates-stamped documents.

Pursuant to the Court's Order, the deposition of the Custodian of Records for Kokoweef had been scheduled for April 30, 2010. In order to prepare for that deposition, Plaintiffs reviewed Kokoweef's Responses in conjunction with bates-stamped disks that had been produced (although never with any type of signed pleading by Kokoweef's counsel) and attempted to identify which documents on those disks matched the index attached to the Responses. The result of this analysis was that, again, most of the documents identified in the index to the Responses did not exist on any of the disks, and Plaintiffs would have gone into the deposition of Kokoweef's Custodian of Records with an incomplete and in accurate set of documents. See Affidavits of Monica L. Metoyer and Jennifer L. Taylor attached hereto.

Further, on April 28, 2010, at 6:23pm, counsel for Kokoweef emailed a letter which stated:

> "In preparing for the deposition on Friday, it occurred to me that, while we have provided the corporate documents of Kokoweef, Inc. on numerous occasions, because I do not recall the last date that any corporate documents were produced, there may be some minutes of corporate meetings that you do not have. Accordingly, if you will provide me early tomorrow with a list of the minutes that you do have assembled, I will provide you copies of the minutes that you apparently do no have immediately after receiving your list."

A true and correct copy of the email and correspondence from April 28, 2010 are attached hereto as Exhibit "5". Attached hereto as Exhibit "6" is correspondence to Mr. Clary in response to Exhibit "5".

On April 29, 2010, at 4:17 p.m., Kokoweef served Supplemental Response to So-Called Nominal Defendant Kokoweef, Inc.'s Response to Documents Contained in Plaintiff's Notice of Deposition Pursuant to NRCP 30(b)(6) of the Custodian and Keeper of Records of Kokoweef, Inc. (the "Supplemental Response"), a true and correct copy of which (without the two-inch unbates-stamped documents) is attached hereto as Ex. "7". These Supplemental Responses clearly indicated that Kokoweef had not responded to Plaintiffs' Request for Production as required by the Order and NRCP 34. See also Exhibit "8", correspondence to Patrick Clary regarding the Supplemental Responses. Specifically, in the Supplemental Response to Request No. 15, Kokoweef wrote: "Although voluminous corporate documents were previously litigation. Further, a review of Kokoweef's sole NRCP 16.1 disclosure, a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto as Ex. "9", indicated no such disclosures, and the index to the Responses, similarly disclosed no such responses.

The Supplemental Response to Request No. 24 was equally troubling and demonstrated produced" by Kokoweef, but failed to indicate when such documents had been produced in the

The Supplemental Response to Request No. 24 was equally troubling and demonstrated that Kokoweef had not properly responded to Plaintiffs requests as Ordered by the Court and as required by NRCP 34. The Supplemental Response to Request No. 24 stated: "While all such documents were produced at Kokoweef's office . . . and scanned there . . . except for the stockholders' file for Peter and Lisa Freeman, which was inadvertently located in the undersigned counsel's office and just discovered . . . "

Despite the continued late production of documents by Kokoweef in violation of the Court's Order on the Motion to Compel, Plaintiffs were preparing for the Custodian of Records Deposition scheduled for April 30, 2010. However, after hours of review by Plaintiffs' counsel and paralegal, it was clear that Kokoweef's Responses were deficient, evasive and incomplete, and that going forward with the April 30, 2010 deposition of the Custodian of Records a waste of time and money. Accordingly, Plaintiffs sent correspondence to counsel for Kokoweef outlining the extensive deficiencies in their Responses and requesting immediate compliance with the Order and NRCP 34. A true and correct copy of this correspondence is attached hereto as Ex. "10".

In response, on May 7, 2010, counsel for Kokoweef sent correspondence indicating that there was no deficiency in its production and listing only a few documents that would be supplemented. A true and correct copy of this correspondence is attached hereto as Ex. "11". Counsel for Kokweef also identified numerous documents that were not produced because, he believed, they had not been requested, despite the fact that they fell within the purview of Plaintiffs' Requests. What was clear from this correspondence was that Kokoweef continued to insist that documents produced, without authentication or numbered identification, and prior to the litigation was sufficient to fulfill its obligations under the Order. Yet, the letter failed to provide any identification of the dates that these so-called "voluminous documents" were produced, or any other identification that would be responsive to the Order or under NRCP 34.

III. LEGAL AUTHORITY:

A. STANDARD FOR THRESHHOLD DETERMINATION ON MOTIONS FOR SANCTIONS

NRCP 37, governs the failure to make disclosure or cooperate in discovery and the imposition of sanctions, and in pertinent part state:

- (3) Evasive or Incomplete Disclosure, Answer or Response. For purposes of this subdivision an evasive or incomplete disclosure, answer or response is to be treated as a failure to disclose, answer or respond.
- (4) Expenses and Sanctions.
  - (A) If the motion is granted or if the disclosure or requested discovery is provided after the motion was filed, the court shall, after affording an opportunity to be heard, require the party or deponent whose conduct necessitated the motion or the party or attorney advising such conduct or both of them to pay to the moving party the reasonable expenses incurred in making the motion, including attorney's fees, unless the court finds that the motion was filed without the movant's first making a good faith effort to obtain the disclosure or discovery without court action, or that the opposing party's nondisclosure, response or objection was substantially justified, or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

(C) If the motion is granted in part and denied in part, the court may enter any protective order authorized under Rule 26(c) and may, after affording an opportunity to be heard, apportion the reasonable expenses incurred in relation to the motion among the parties and persons in a just manner.

(c) Failure to Disclose; False or Misleading Disclosure; Refusal to Admit.

ROBERTSON & VICK, LLP

1 | 2 | R | 3 | 20 | 4 | he | 5 | th | 6 | ot | 7 | at |

(1) A party that without substantial justification fails to disclose information required by Rule 16.1, 16.2, or 26(e)(1), or to amend a prior response to discovery as required by Rule 26(e)(2), is not, unless such failure is harmless, permitted to use as evidence at a trial, at a hearing, or on a motion any witness or information not so disclosed. In addition to or in lieu of this sanction, the court, on motion and after affording an opportunity to be heard, may impose other appropriate sanctions. In addition to requiring payment of reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, caused by the failure, these sanctions may include any of the actions authorized under Rule 37(b)(2)(A), (B), and (C) and may include informing the jury of the failure to make the disclosure.

B. DEFENDANTS CANNOT CONTINUE TO REFER TO AND RELY UPON DOCUMENTS THAT ARE OUTSIDE THOSE PRODUCED PURSUANT TO THE RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

NRCP 16.1 and 26 require that documents intended to be used in the litigation be produced in conjunction with the Rules of Civil Procedure. Specifically, NRCP 16.1(b)(1) requires that counsel exchange documents intended to be used in "support of the allegations or denials of the pleading filed by that party". Additionally, NRCP 26 requires supplementation of prior disclosures. NRCP 26 (e)(1). Defendants' continued refrain that they have, at unknown times, produced, "voluminous records" means nothing if those documents are not provided pursuant to NRCP 16.1, 26 and/or 34.

In this case, this continued refrain is particularly problematic because of the mercurial nature of the documents provided to Plaintiffs pre-litigation. Plaintiffs need to have Kokoweef's so-called "voluminous documents" produced in a form that includes the signature or certification of an attorney or Kokoweef representative in order to have confirmation that documents being produced constitute the entire breadth of documents responsive to Plaintiffs' Requests for Production. Without some level of definition in Kokoweef's production of documents, Plaintiffs and their experts cannot reasonably be expected to rely upon these fugitive documents.

Additionally, the vague and kafka-esque responses of Defendants provides no further guidance as to the documents that are intended to be responsive to each request. See Ex 4.

ROBERTSON & VICK, LLP

ROBERTSON & VICK, LLP

IV. CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing, Plaintiffs' request that the Court order Kokoweef immediately and completely supplement its evasive and incomplete responses to Plaintiffs' Requests for Production and order sanctions in the form of attorneys fees as a result of Plaintiffs' having to bring this further Motion.

DECLARATION OF JENNIFER L. TAYLOR, ESQ. IN SUPPORT OF OPPOSITION TO MOTION TO COMPEL AND IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR SANCTIONS

JENNIFER L. TAYLOR, ESQ., states:

- 1. that she is an attorney licensed to practice in all courts in the State of Nevada, that she is counsel for Plaintiffs that she has personal knowledge of the facts stated herein, except for those stated and made upon information and belief, wherein so indicated.
- 2. I make this Declaration on behalf of Plaintiffs and in support of their Opposition to Defendants' Motion to Compel (hereafter the "Motion") filed by Defendants Kokoweef, Inc. and Patrick C. Clary (hereafter "Defendants") and in support of Plaintiffs' Motion for Sanctions.
- 3. The conversations that have been held with both the defense counsel have been numerous, extensive and not accurately represented by either of them. Following are relevant portions of the recent conversations to give the Court additional background that is not solely excerpted by Defendants' counsel for their own benefit.
- 4. On April 14, 2010 Plaintiffs received Defendants' so-called Responses to Plaintiffs' Requests for Production. In preparation for the Custodian of Records Deposition ordered by this Court, my paralegal and I reviewed the index and several discs of documents provided to our office throughout this litigation. However, none of these disks have ever been authenticated or produced pursuant to NRCP 16. 1 or NRCP 34. Additionally, most of the documents allegedly produced, as set out in the Kokoweef Index of Documents, have not been located in Kokoweef's production. See Affidavit of Monica Metoyer included along with this pleading.
- 5. On May 21, 2010, I held a meet and confer with counsel for Kokoweef regarding Plaintiffs' responses to Defendants' discovery and Kokoweef's responses to Plaintiffs' Requests for Production. Counsel for Kokoweef conducted the meet and confer on his discovery in the following manner. He would go to each interrogatory and ask for a "yes or no" response as to whether I would be answering each. After going through this on a few Interrogatories, I told him that I wanted to hear why it was that he felt his Interrogatories were not subject to any objections. While he didn't want to have this discussion, he eventually went through each interrogatory and stated that there was nothing wrong with any of them. Further, as has happened in the past in our discussions, he informed me that, because he'd been practicing for decades longer than I had been practicing, he had drafted thousands of interrogatories and knew if one was objectionable or not.

- 6. While Mr. Clary did not swear at me in this conversation, as he has on many other occasions, I told him that I was weary of him, and his co-defense counsel, making every effort in pleadings and letters to make me look inexperienced and stupid, to disparage the type of law I practice, and to engage in other bullying tactics. Mr. Clary's response was "have you ever been sued", which I took to mean that his behavior was predicated on the fact that he was a named defendant in this litigation. I said to him, as I've said to both him and his co-defense counsel on other occasions, that if he was too emotionally invested to represent himself in this litigation, he should hire an attorney to represent him so that the litigation could proceed with greater civility. Mr. Clary posed the following questions to me: What if I can't afford one? Are you going to pay for one?
- 7. Defendants continue their tactic of sandbagging Plaintiffs' counsel. Defendants' Motion to Compel was delivered to our office after 4:00pm yesterday. Counsel for Defendants signed the Motion of May 21, 2010, and could have served Plaintiffs' counsel with a courtesy copy. However, he, instead, waited until one hour before close of business yesterday. Additionally, today, at 10:30am, a representative from Mr. Clary's office hand-delivered a unilaterally prepared "Status Report" to the Court. As further indication of the lack of professionalism demonstrated by Mr. Clary's office, his representative simply walked into our back offices and directly into my paralegal's office without seeking to announce themselves at our receptionist's desk.
- 8. I believe that several of the Interrogatories will be used to continue to harass my clients and shareholders who support their efforts. On June 20, 2009, I met Ralph Lewis at our offices. Mr. Lewis and I discussed his background and history with Kokoweef. He told me that he had been doing work either researching the mine or physically working at the mine since 1979. This work included the annual filings on the mining claims assessments. In early 2009,

Mr. Lewis was aware of the litigation, but had been trying to be "neutral" in the dispute. However, he was asked by shareholder, Richard Dutchik, to allow a link to his series of articles and memos about the Kokoweef legend's history to be placed on the home page of the Kokoweef.com website. As a result of permitting this link, on February 3, 2009, Defendant Larry Hahn left a message for Mr. Lewis on his cellular phone voice mail. On June 20, 2009, Mr. Lewis played this voice mail for me. Mr. Lewis had saved this voicemail and intended to save this voicemail. However, about a month ago, Mr. Lewis' cell phone provider had a system wide error that deleted all saved voicemails. I attempted to obtain an affidavit from Mr. Lewis to include with this Opposition and Countermotion. However, given that only one judicial day was available to provide a pleading and Mr. Lewis is travelling today, he was unable to do so. Mr. Lewis, is, however, available to provide testimony on the same, and will specifically testify that Mr. Hahn's message stated that "Anyone who is with that [Kokoweef.com] website won't see a dime out of this - even if I have to keep them in court forever."

I declare under the penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

DECLARATION OF MONICA METOYÉR IN SUPPORT OF OPPOSITION TO MOTION TO COMPEL AND IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR SANCTIONS

I, Monica Metoyér, state as follows:

- I. I am a paralegal with Robertson & Vick, LLP, attorneys of record for Plaintiffs herein. The facts stated herein are based upon my own personal knowledge and if called to testify I could and would competently do so under oath.
- 2. On April 27, 2010, I began assisting with the preparation for the deposition of the Custodian of Records of Kokoweef.
- 3. I began the preparation by reviewing disks containing documents and records produced by Kokoweef and the Kokoweef Directory of Documents Produced. I cross-referenced both the documents and records on the disks and hard copies of documents produced to our office with the Kokoweef Directory of Documents Produced.
- 4. As I identified documents that were produced to our office on disk, I made a notation on the Kokoweef Directory of Documents Produced in the order that they were located. I then double-checked the hard copies of documents and noted those documents with a checkmark on the Kokoweef Directory of Documents Produced. I found that only a small percentage of the documents produced to our office were listed on the Kokoweef Directory of Documents Produced. Attached as Exhibit "12" is a true and correct copy of the Kokoweef Directory of Documents produced with my notations.
- I spent approximately 7 hours reviewing the documents on the disks, the hard copies of the documents produced by Kokoweef and cross-referencing the documents with the Kokoweef Directory of Documents Produced.

I declare under the penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Without commenting on the contents of said letters, or acknowledging that Kokoweef did not properly respond, it is Kokoweef, not my clients, who were responsible for the production. I appreciate your keeping me in the loop and I believe it is appropriate.

I will make one observation. It appears that your requests are overbroad and burdensome. Had I responded, there would have been multiple objections. It is my belief that Kokoweef attempted to respond to requests.

I allowed you unfettered access to the "inner office" of Kokoweef. If you recall, our original agreement was to limit you to the "outer office." You were allowed to literally make a diagram of the entire "inner office." This should make it clear that Kokoweef had a desire to open and allow unfettered access.

Your background in CD cases makes it clear that you have a desire to go on a "fishing expedition" and to cause such expense to the defendants to bury them. You have essentially sought every piece of paper that was generated by Kokoweef or its predecessor EIN from their inception. That is likely to happen! However, this will not be a positive result for your clients.

Numerous times, I have requested a settlement offer, what your clients wanted, or at minimum, a computation of any category of damages claimed by your clients. No such information has ever been provided to us. After the hearing on your discovery motion, I contacted Mr. Robertson and you. I asked what your clients wanted. Mr. Robertson stated, "I am not authorized to tell you!"

While we were at the Kokoweef offices, I believe on Monday, April 19, 2010, I asked you what your clients wanted." You stated, in an agitated voice, that I had asked you this numerous times, you had many matters with which you had to deal and you could not address it.

I am also not happy with your unilateral termination of the deposition that was scheduled twice and ordered by Judge Gonzalez to take place. It is clear that your clients do not have a desire to resolve this matter or to assist Kokoweef in ridding itself of an officer who allegedly acted improperly. Your clients' goals are to kill Kokoweef!

This letter shall serve as a formal demand for the immediate disclosure of your client's damages. Since you have set a deadline for performance by Kokoweef of May 10, 2010, we will use said date for your responses. It is the desire of my clients to end this litigation. It is clear that the Plaintiffs prefer to prolong it and avoid the true issues.

I look forward to hearing from you.

With great concern,

\s\M Nelson Segel

Re: BURKE, et al. V. HAHN, et al. Our File No.: 5081.0001

Dear Mr. Segel:

Your letter to Ms. Taylor, dated April 30, 2010, makes it clear that you have become emotionally invested in this case and lack objectivity. The first paragraph of your letter clarifies that you do not represent the corporation Kokoweef and are therefore not responsible for the deficiencies we contend exist with Kokoweef's production of documents. You then, however, spent the rest of your letter justifying Kokoweef's responses and suggest objections you would have raised had you prepared the responses on behalf of Kokoweef. The balance of your letter contains nothing more than enmity and vitriol against my firm and my clients.

Further, your attempt to mischaracterize our conversation concerning your request for a settlement demand is not only a mischaracterization of what I said but reveals the collective desperation of you and your client to terminate this litigation without having to produce the evidence long sought by our clients.

ALBUQUERQUE

Contrary to your ascertain, our clients' goal is not to "kill Kokoweef!", but rather to reveal the massive fraud that your client has perpetrated on all shareholders. While this goal may be uncomfortable and frightening to your client, I request that you comport yourself with the degree of professionalism required as an officer of the court and that you refrain from any further diatribes against my firm, its attorneys and our clients. Reasonable minds are free to differ on the interpretation of the evidence, but it is counter productive to attach yourself to the emotions of your client.

Your unilaterally imposed "deadline" for our clients to disclose their damages is amusing and indicative of your failure to comprehend the nature and extent of this lawsuit. Simply put, our clients cannot calculate their damages unless and until Kokoweef fully complies with the court's order and produces all of its corporate records. Only then can our experts analyze this evidence and opine as to the amount of corporate waste and self-dealing committed by your client, as well as the precise nature of any securities violations that may have occurred. We will wait until this evidence has been produced and analyzed by our experts before giving you an imprecise calculation of our clients' damages.

Very truly yours,

THE COURT: I do.

MR, SEGEL: Okay.

б

MR. CLARY: Whose summary judgment, mine or his?

THE COURT: Well, I guess I don't want to really do the summary judgment first. Let me do it a little differently. I want to do the motion to compel first. And I want you to tell me why I don't want to hear it. I don't remember which of you said that I shouldn't hear it.

MR. SEGEL: That was -- Your Honor, it's not that we don't want you to hear. I guess you're going to hear it no matter what.

THE COURT: Absolutely.

MR. SEGEL: But the issue that we raised in our opposition, and it was -- the motion to compel is against Kokoweef. I know they keep talking about my client's responsibilities at present, but it wasn't addressed to him. Mr. Clary responded. He left for a cruise, unfortunately, right when that was due, and so I did a little extra work because I felt it was important.

The problem we have in this case, this discovery motion is a perfect example, the plaintiffs do what they want to do. They don't follow the rules of procedure, they don't follow what the Court's telling them to do. And in this case in discovery issues, and we had a Rule 16 conference with Judge Denton, counsel specifically asked Judge Denton to take over discovery. Judge Denton said, no.

Then we came before Your Honor on our motion to transfer, and you enlightened us on why you wouldn't transfer the case. And that's fine. And counsel again said, hey, Judge, will you do discovery. And you asked Mr. Clary and I to stipulate this was a complex case. While there are issues in this case, it's far from complex, and we refused. And you then instructed plaintiffs' counsel to file a motion to determine it's a complex case and then you'd take over discovery.

THE COURT: Sure.

MR. SEGEL: It was never done. Then they filed a motion in front of Judge Denton, Department 13 -- speak to your assistant and are told that, just leave it here. You continued at our request for oral argument, so we're here before you. So, you know, the issue of it was noticed to the right department or not is not really a big issue. But the whole point is that the rules and the case that I cited specifically say that unless this case has been determined to be complex, the Discovery Commissioner has to do discovery motions.

THE COURT: True.

MR. SEGEL: You know, if it had been a motion to determine as complex, we would have opposed that concept. And if this Court decided it was going to take over discovery, we have no objection to that. We have no issues with you ruling. It's just, as we'll get into my motion for summary judgment, there are rules of procedure. I used to live and die by the rules. Very few judges enforce them anymore. I think you do more than most. But I --

THE COURT: But still not as much as you want.

MR. SEGEL: Well, probably not. But, you know, no one ever gets what they want, Your Honor. You're the best. And hopefully we'll convince the Judge that we're right.

The key here is that we find ourselves -- it's very difficult to defend a case like this one when we have no clue what they're asking for -- and we'll talk about that in my summary judgment motion -- and, two, when they don't do what the rules require us to do. And so if you believe that the cases that I cited are wrong and that you in fact have the right sua sponte to take control of discovery, you'll hear the motion. If you believe that the cases I cited and the rules --

THE COURT: Well, I don't care. I've been told by the Supreme Court in Business Court cases that they would prefer that the Business Court judges handle discovery. You know, that's okay. I don't care. It's either a one-step process or a two-step process. I'm going to handle discovery whether you go to the Discovery Commissioner first and then we have a full-blown hearing up here -- that's how we're going to do it. We're going to do it one way or the other. And we're going to do it before we do the motions for summary judgment.

MR. CLARY: I didn't hear that last thing you said, Your Honor.

THE COURT: We're going to finish the motion to compel one way or the other before I hear the summary judgment motion.

So do you want me to hear it, or do you want to go to Commissioner Bulla and have her hear it and then you come back up here and I rule on whatever objection comes out of Commissioner Bulla?

MR. SEGEL: Well, Your Honor, since Mr. Clary's counsel for Kokoweef, he just said to me, and I don't disagree, we'll let you hear it. I do have some issues you might want to have some supplemental briefing on on the issue, if you don't mind, but --

THE COURT: That's fine. How long do you need?

MR. SEGEL: Well, I just -- I thought we could do the arguments, Your Honor. Based on the arguments I may -you know, there may be some issues that arise.

THE COURT: No. I like to have the briefing full before you argue.

MR. CLARY: Well, but, Your Honor, the fact that we -- the fact that we agree you could hear it doesn't mean we consent to its being granted, obviously.

THE COURT: I know. That was why we wanted to 1 No. 2 argue it. 3 We'll argue it, right. MR. CLARY: THE COURT: Do you want to argue it now, or do you 4 5 want to file a supplemental brief? Because it doesn't matter to me. б 7 MR. CLARY: No. Let's argue now. 8 MR. SEGEL: Mr. Clary says argue now, Your Honor. 9 THE COURT: Okay. Come on, Mr. Segel, let's go. 10 Well, it's their motion. MR. SEGEL: 11 THE COURT: Well, yeah. You asked for documents, 12 they didn't give them to you, you're irritated. Mr. Segel. 13 14 MR. SEGEL: Yes, Your Honor. Well, again, it's 15 Kokoweef. I don't represent Kokoweef, Your Honor. But 16 basically I don't think that the motion that -- and I wasn't 17 really prepared to argue, so Mr. Clary's going to argue. 18 I didn't think that the motion set forth what it was we didn't produce. As I set forth I think in our opposition, we've 19 20 given them probably two stacks this high, 12 inches or so, of 21 documentation. 22 The one thing we didn't give them and we're going to 23 fight over is a shareholders list. We don't think that it's appropriate to give a shareholders list on this situation. 24

they want to explain the benefit of why it's going to be of value to them -- the problem that we've had is they've gone to the Securities Division. We're now having to have investigation by the Securities Division, which we think we'll be successful in defending. But that's an expense of Kokoweef that has to be borne that is not in the benefit of the shareholders.

We're also subject to an IRS audit, which is not a problem, because we're not concerned about it. But that's also because of what they've been doing. They went to the State Bar against Mr. Clary. They're doing everything they can do -- the individual plaintiffs are doing everything they could do to try to disrail and kill Kokoweef.

Our concern is that they are going to take the shareholders list and contact each and every shareholder. And because of the wonderful case of Thigg versus Oceans, which I unfortunately know because Donna Thigg is the reason I live in Las Vegas, and Dick Oceans's my first interview, you could do anything you want to do. When a case is pending in court you can say anything outside of court, almost, and it's not slander, it's not libel. And so --

THE COURT: Well, there's this new  $\underline{\text{CCSD}}$  case that says that, too.

MR. SEGEL: It's -- the problem, Your Honor, is that what they're doing, what they're saying about Mr. Hahn and what we're doing is they're trying to influence the other shareholders who have full faith in what Mr. Hahn has done 2 through the years, and they're trying to get to those 3 shareholders so that they can try to motivate them against Mr. 4 Hahn. And it's just creating more problems for Kokoweef. 5 So on the shareholder issue we don't think they've 6 shown a justifiable basis for having the shareholders list. 7 So we're fighting over them receiving that. 8 On the other documentation Mr. Clary and Ms. --9 I'm sorry, I have a mental block. MR. CLARY: Taylor. 10 11 MR. SEGEL: -- I'm sorry -- Ms. Taylor had a 12 telephone call, as I understand it -- I didn't participate, 13 that's why I shouldn't be arquing this part --14 MR. CLARY: I'll argue. 15 MR. SEGEL: -- a long telephone conversation 16 December of 2009 where they discussed what would be produced, 17 what wouldn't be produced. And Ms. Taylor -- and this is 18 based on my conversation with Mr. Clary immediately following that conversation --19 20 MS. TAYLOR: Objection. Hearsay. 21 THE COURT: IT's an argument. 22 MS. TAYLOR: I'm sorry, Your Honor. 23 THE COURT: It was funny, though, Ms. Taylor. 24 MS. TAYLOR: Thank you, Your Honor.

MR. CLARY: I didn't hear what she said.

1 She said, "Hearsay," and the Judge said, MR. SEGEL: 2 this is oral argument. 3 THE COURT: She objected to the argument on hearsay, 4 and I laughed. 5 MR. CLARY: My hearing aids got found at the bottom 6 of the washing machine, so I'm in trouble today. 7 THE COURT: Do you want the cool headphones that we 8 have? 9 MR. CLARY: I'm beginning to think maybe I need 10 them. 11 (Off-record colloquy - Court and Marshal) 12 THE COURT: Hold on a second. Let's get Mr. Clary the headphones. 13 14 MR. CLARY: When we have these side comments I like 15 to hear them. I might just say, Your Honor, on the issue that 16 Mr. Segel raised, to try to save some time, that we did have 17 that conversation. And her response to my point on that --18 THE COURT: Hold on a second, Mr. Clary. Let's get 19 you the headphones first. 20 And my response to her -- and her MR. CLARY: 21 response to my affidavit in which I indicated that I had this 22 conversation with her, she doesn't deny that we had the 23 conversation. She just denies that she never communicated 24 with me again. She didn't communication with me, not -- but not -- she never got back to me with the details that she said she was going to set forth in the letter we'd agreed to.

б

THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Segel, you were arguing.

MR. SEGEL: Your Honor, the issue -- well, again, I think I've basically -- Mr. Clary and Ms. Taylor had this discussion of what was going to be produced. As Mr. Clary just mentioned, Ms. Taylor theoretically was going to send a letter memorializing what the agreement was, and then Mr. Clary was going to go make sure he got those documents together for her. That -- the letter never came. Mr. Clary never did the work. And there's no new phone call, no new attempt to resolve the issue, and the motion was filed. So I'm sure 234 was satisfied.

The big issue that I've got, Your Honor, in being -in saying they want documents and we're not -- okay, Mr.

Segel, now respond, is I don't know what they want. I mean, they're saying -- you know, number one, Mr. Clary's position was that -- they put this request for documents in the middle of a notice of deposition. Mr. Clary's position is that that's not proper. He never filed a formal response to the request. So that's one of the issues they raise, as well, there's never a response.

So we don't know -- you know, in a motion to compel you're supposed to say, we asked for this and we didn't get this, this, and this. I don't think they have that in their motion. So we don't have the information to know what it is that they claim we didn't produce.

There's one set of documents I know that I think we need to supplement, and we're working on --

THE COURT: So you don't think that what is attached as Exhibit 1 to their motion is the request for production?

MR. SEGEL: Well, let me just look at it, Your Honor.

MR. CLARY: Your Honor, even though I objected technically to the form of their request for production, because they never gave one, the fact of the matter is that I treated it as though it had been properly done, and we produced all those documents. You know, I'd like to know what documents we haven't produced. They've never told us. We've asked them --

MR. SEGEL: Your Honor --

MR. CLARY: -- tell us what documents. And she was going to write me a letter, and we had a procedure that we were going to use. And, I mean, we spent, I don't know, an hour or two on the telephone. And then I never heard from her again, and then she files this motion. This is outrageous.

MR. SEGEL: Your Honor, in response to your question, we have responded to most, if not all, of these requests. My understanding of the rules for a motion to compel is that the party that is moving to compel production must list what the request was and what wasn't produced. Here they just listed en banc their entire production. If the Court wants me to go through here and tell you what we've produced, I'll be glad to do that. But I'm telling you right now --

THE COURT: Other than the shareholder list, what else did you refuse to produce?

MR. SEGEL: The only thing we've -- I think we refused to produce is the shareholders list. I may be wrong. That's my recollection. We did not produce certain documentation regarding loans. We're putting that information together. And we hoped to get a report today. We're still trying to get together. We've had issues -- the Hahns have had issues that have prevented them from doing that in the last few days. So otherwise we would have had that done before.

But, you know, on the rest of the requests, with those two -- we've given tax returns, we've given -- they subpoenaed all our monthly statements. They subpoenaed a court [unintelligible] where they subpoenaed the statements not only for Kokoweef and EIN, but for the Hahns individually and for Hahn's Surplus. And that was the protective order that -- we stipulated even though they didn't properly subpoena them, they didn't notice us, we didn't find out about it until -- the 16.1 hadn't been held yet, the JCCR hadn't been filed.

THE COURT: So have all the corporate documents and minutes been produced?

MR. SEGEL: Yes, I believe they have, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. And all of the accounting data that's included in Request Number 16 been produced?

MR. SEGEL: Let me look at 16 before I respond, but I believe the answer would be yes once I see it.

THE COURT: Well, it doesn't sound like from the description of documents you told me were produced.

MR. SEGEL: Your Honor, we -- I'm fairly certain we gave them the QuickBook backup. I'm not positive.

THE COURT: They asked for data files in native format.

MR. SEGEL: Well, Your Honor, here's -- one of the issues in this case, Mr. Burke a few years ago said, hey, look, all your stuff -- this place was run like a small company. Mr. Hahn -- there were no really paid employees to speak of in the office. Mr. Hahn ran the place. He used a part of his back of Hahn's Surplus as the office for Kokoweef. All he had, volunteers. So there were pieces of paper everywhere. It was not computerized. Mr. Burke demanded -- he was a director at the time -- demanded that they computerize everything. So Mr. Burke brought in Rita Vandenworker -- Vandewalker, and Ms. Vandewalker took all these pieces of paper and put them into QuickBooks. That's the first time we had a computerized system. That's all we have.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. SEGEL: Prior to the litigation we turned over all those records to them. There was like four or five binders, 3-inch binders of records, checks, backup and whatnot, was given to them prior to the litigation, because they were going to do an audit. Which they never did. And that was a subject of the evidentiary hearing. Mr. Springem [phonetic], their expert, testified that he had reviewed all those documents. That was the basis of his initial finding of red herrings or --

THE COURT: So we've never produced it in the native format?

MR. SEGEL: No. No, no. I'm not saying no. I'm not sure what you mean by native format. I believe we've given them a disk --

THE COURT: It's an electronic backup of QuickBooks that you make, you give it to them, and then their accountant looks at it, and then you guys don't fight so much.

MR. SEGEL: I believe -- well, Your Honor, in this case we'll never stop fighting. But I believe we've given them a QuickBooks disk. If we haven't, we have no problem doing it. But I think we have.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. CLARY: Sure we have.

б

MR. SEGEL: I'm pretty sure we have. We gave them the backup, the hard copy, before the litigation, as well as supplemental stuff as part of this production.

MR. CLARY: I've given them at least five or six disks.

THE COURT: Mr. Clary, hold on. Mr. Segel's arguing.

Mr. Segel, what else do you think you've refused to produce?

MR. SEGEL: The only thing that we refused to produce from my recollection is the shareholders list.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. SEGEL: I believe that we didn't fully respond to the loans, and we're supplementing that. We're also going through all the requests to see if there's anything else that we can do to supplement.

THE COURT: Okay. Now, Ms. Taylor or Mr. Robertson.

MS. TAYLOR: Your Honor, let me first say that all of the side comments that Mr. Segel made about prior motions, et cetera, are really interesting, but not relevant to my motion, which is very straightforward. 30(b)(5) lets me file requests for production along with a 30(b)(6) deposition notice. That's what I did. Rule 34 says, if you want to oppose what's in a request for production you have to do it in the written form. It also says if you want to produce documents you have to do it in the ordinary course of how they're kept in business, and you have to note each category that that document is going to fulfill. And somebody has to sign it, and somebody has to say it's either authentic or certify it in some manner, shape or form.

MR. CLARY: How does she say that?

MS. TAYLOR: And that has never been done to this date. There's a lot of things that haven't been produced. The September 17th telephone conference with Mr. Clary, it was a two-hour call. Couple of things that were resolved was that he was going to get me tax records that had not been produced from like '04 or '06. He did that several days later. But then they had this whole wash of documents from like the '04 to '06 time period, plus they had receipts that hadn't been done. And that's set out in the deposition, that their purported PMK had said, I'm still not done copying receipts, I do it when I have time and when I'm asked. They've never produced that.

And so Mr. Clary told me, oh, well, they're scanning documents, they're working on it, we'll get it to you before Christmas. And I said, great, if I don't see it by Christmas, I'm going to have to do a motion to compel, because our September 17th conference would intended to comply with 2.34, even though they had never opposed in written form any of my requests. Never saw it before Christmas. Called him on January 4th, said, give me the status of the rest of the documents you're going to give me. He said, I'll get back to you. He never got back to me. I had to file this motion.

I think it's really clear what we haven't gotten. I mean, I said, we don't have the '04, '05, any of the corporate records, we don't have hard copies of a lot of the receipts, we don't know for a fact that we have all the hard copies of the checks, because we can't get a PMK. They produced somebody who was basically their copy service. You know, she would get documents from other people, copy them, and that's what she gave us. I went through very specifically with her every single request. She couldn't tell me whether documents complied with that request, nor could she tell me where they'd come from, where else we might need to look, and who else might know about them.

So we don't have that type of certification, we don't have the bulk of the receipts, we don't know what has or hasn't been produced, because we can't get a legitimate certification. Mr. Segel's saying, I think it's all been produced, is one of the problems that we've been having. And that's why I did the depo notice with the RTPs the way I did it.

We don't have stock certificates, we don't have a ledger that would show consideration for the shares sold and what the prices were, and until we see a written response and a verification of what's been produced, which request they think it complies with, and a certification from either a PMK or their counsel that that's the totality of the records, we're really in a bind, because we have to keep playing this game with them of -- you know, I just hear for the first time from Nelson, oh, they're still working on it. Now, that totally belies what Mr. Clary said in his opposition, which was, oh, we gave them everything. And so I have to do this dance constantly to try to get records.

You know, it's -- there's so many things -- I don't want to get into a he said-she said. The bottom line is they haven't given us records. My deposition notice was proper. They've never given me a legitimate basis to say that, not putting a title on, not attaching it via staple versus building it into the body is inappropriate under 30(b)(5), and it's just really simple. We're requesting you make them certify, you make them delineate under my requests, and you make them produce within a certain time frame so we can get rolling on this.

THE COURT: Okay. Anything else, Mr. Segel?

MR. SEGEL: Your Honor, I'm not sure the issue of whether or not putting the notice -- the request inside the notice of deposition is appropriate or not.

THE COURT: It is.

MR. SEGEL: If what they're requesting --1 2 THE COURT: It's been for like 15 years. 3 MR. SEGEL: If they're -- oh. I don't --THE COURT: You don't come over here too often. 4 I'll go back to Bankruptcy and play with 5 MR. SEGEL: them back there. 6 7 If the -- if what they're asking, Your Honor, is that we give a formal response and Mr. Clary sign that formal 8 response --9 Well, somebody has to sign it. 10 11 MR. SEGEL: Well, Mr. Clary represents Kokoweef. can't do it. The requests were to Kokoweef 12 -- then I don't think we have a problem giving that 13 And to the extent that we have anything to 14 supplement, we'll supplement. This idea of a certification, 1.5 I've never heard that we have any obligation to put a specific 16 certification. We have a request, we responded, we're stuck 17 with what we respond to as that's true or not. 18 The ledger -- again, the ledger, until they show the 19 Court why the ledger for the shares or the shares are 20 meaningful in this case, I don't think they should be 21 I don't think there's a justification. I mean, provided. 22 this is something I think that we've raised a sufficient issue 23 24 on. Mr. Clary has stated to me, and he can up, if you 25 want him to, that he never got a phone call on January 4th, that he never agreed to a December -- before Christmas production, that wasn't the arrangement. But, you know, we have what we have. If the issue with this Court, again, is we give them a response, we give the response. But we believe -with the exception of what I've told you, I believe we've produced everything that we have in our possession. continuing to try to go through the records. Again, it's all volunteers. I don't have anybody being paid to do this work. We have volunteers that are doing it. I have not been involved. It sounds like I'm going to have to go over myself and supervise this. I will do that if that satisfies the Court. But Mr. Clary is counsel for Kokoweef. I'll be there as Mr. Hahn, the president's attorney, protecting his interests to make sure everything has been completed. Clary will sign the response for them, if that's what they need.

MS. TAYLOR: Your Honor, if can just -- I'm sorry.

19 Just two --

THE COURT: No. It's okay. I'm ready.

All right. I need a written response to the request for production which was properly served within 15 days. It needs to be signed by one of the counsel. It doesn't have to be certified, it just needs to be signed with the written responses delineating the documents that are produced in conjunction with that.

With respect to the shareholder lists, it's one of the requests. It needs to be produced. I understand you may want some limitation as to the way that is used or disclosed, and I'm happy to discuss with you a limitation on that use.

The PMK needs to be produced again after the documents are provided, because the PMK was supposed to bring all the documents with him to the deposition, which is why the notice is served in the fashion it is, within 30 days.

As to the documents regarding loans, you say that you're in the process of supplementing that, so you can provide it with the written response.

And the QuickBooks electronic data file needs to be produced as part of this.

MR. SEGEL: If it hasn't, we'll produce it.

MR. CLARY: Your Honor, we had produced five disks for them. I mean --

MR. SEGEL: Your Honor, just one clarification. I think we need to address this now. The limitation on the shares. My position would be that if you're requiring us to produced the information from the shareholders list and the ledgers that they be in counsel's possession only and they're not disclosed to the plaintiff at all. If there's a basis for doing so, they can come back to court and --

THE COURT: That's right. That's how I usually do

1 it. MS. TAYLOR: And, Your Honor, I would just like to 2 3 be able to produce them to my expert. MR. SEGEL: [Unintelligible]. 4 5 THE COURT: Okay. 6 MR. ROBERTSON: So stipulated. 7 Thank you, Your Honor. MS. TAYLOR: That'll be the stipulation on the 8 restriction of the shareholders list. 9 MS. TAYLOR: Okay. 10 11 THE COURT: If you need to use it or have the basis 12 that you feel you need to communicate to any of the 13 shareholders, you have to come back and seek permission from the Court, in which way we will come back with a protocol for 14 you to contact the shareholders in a way that both sides feel that they're adequately informed. 16 MR. SEGEL: May we redact their personal information 17 18 or --THE COURT: Can we take their Socials off. 19 MR. SEGEL: Well, the addresses and phone numbers, 20 as well, is what I'm asking. 21 MS. TAYLOR: No. Your Honor --22 THE COURT: The Social Security numbers, yes. 23 the addresses, no. 24 25 But you're not to contact them, and your expert's not to contact them.

MS. TAYLOR: That is fine, Your Honor.

MR. ROBERTSON: And, Your Honor, I just want to get a clarification on the protective order. It's essential that I be able to consult with my clients, who are shareholders in that list, because the discrepancy is how many shares they own between the plaintiffs and the corporation.

THE COURT: Here's the deal. You look at it, you digest it, you can talk to your clients about it. You can't show it to your clients, and you can't talk to any of the shareholders --

MR. ROBERTSON: That's fine. I don't have --

THE COURT: -- except your clients.

MR. SEGEL: And they not disclose who a shareholder is other than that individual shareholder.

THE COURT: He's the lawyer. He's going to digest it. He will find out who the shareholders are. If he wants to talk to his client about who a shareholder is, he can talk to his client about that. But neither he nor his client or his expert will contact the shareholders. He cannot show the documents to his client.

MR. SEGEL: Your Honor, my concern is that, again, Mr. Burke, who we've set forth -- as an aside, we're not addressing that issue today -- is not really a shareholder, because he holds his shares in an LLC. But Mr. Burke has -- you know, we've alleged in our pleadings throughout that Mr. Burke's intent is to destroy Kokoweef. I have evidence of their desires to get rid of Kokoweef and merge it with the lesser of the mine. We have serious concerns, legitimate concerns that any disclosure of any of the names of the shareholders will somehow miraculously be disclosed. ask at this point that the Court order that no disclosure of any shareholders other than -- if they want to talk to Mr. Burke about the number of shares we show that he has, I have no problem with that, or show to Mr. Kehoe the shares that he has, I have no issue with that. But disclosing any information about any shareholder other than the specific shareholder who they're discussing with I think at this stage should be held in abeyance, should be restricted. have an issue with that, I'll talk to Mr. Robertson or Ms. If we can reach an agreement, we do. Otherwise, come There's serious issues here. back before Your Honor.

MR. CLARY: Your Honor, if I could --

THE COURT: Wait. Can I just say something, please.

My typical activity on what this is is an attorney eyes only with a limited restriction. So you get one corporate representative, you get one expert. The information cannot be disclosed any further than that. In this case I am restricting it. I'm not allowing them to show the information to the one corporate representative. It is attorneys' eyes, experts. Those are the only two. It will not be disclosed further.

However, the information that is being reviewed in order for counsel to properly handle the case, they have to be able to go through the information, digest it, and then discuss it with their clients.

So to the extent that they need to discuss with their client who the other shareholders are, they will be permitted to do so.

MR. SEGEL: All right. And so, Your Honor, you're giving us 30 days to produce that; correct?

THE COURT: No. I gave you 20 days.

MR. SEGEL: Twenty days? I'm sorry.

MS. TAYLOR: Your Honor, I thought it was 15 days.

THE COURT: I'm sorry. Fifteen days. Fifteen. And 30 days to produce the PMK. Sorry.

MR. CLARY: Your Honor, there's one fact you need to be made aware of. Mr. Segel gave you some background on what's happened -- what's really happening in the case and how we view the case. But you need to be aware of the fact that Mr. Burke over here sends out these outrageous newsletters to whatever shareholders' names he can get a hold of. And that is the ultimate fear that we have.

THE COURT: If I find out that Mr. Burke sent a newsletter to any new shareholders that he hasn't previously sent the newsletter to after this information is shown to Alex Robertson or Jennifer Taylor, then we might have a problem and I might put somebody in jail if I find them in contempt of my order.

MR. CLARY: Thank you very much.

MR. SEGEL: Your Honor, would the Court entertain a motion on shortened time to have Mr. Burke disqualified as a plaintiff in this case?

THE COURT: You may certainly file such a motion.

MR. SEGEL: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: And I, you know, will then set it, and we'll figure out when to have it, and I'll look at my calendar and see when I can give you.

MR. SEGEL: I appreciate that.

THE COURT: Okay. If there are any concerns regarding the protective order that we've just talked about, if you have trouble in reaching an agreement as to the specific language, please email both versions to me by Tuesday of next week so that Katie and I can then fashion the language that I intended to communicate to you today if you don't agree with what -- if you didn't both get the same version of what I said.

MR. SEGEL: Has that ever happened, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Never.

MR. SEGEL: Thank you.

MR. ROBERTSON: Plaintiffs understand perfectly.

THE COURT: So the motions for summary judgment are off calendar, to be renoticed after the completion of the 30(b)(6) deposition. So if you want to have them renoticed, then you'll just refile it with a notice, attach it, and then we'll have a supplemental opposition that'll include the information from the 30(b)(6) depo.

MR. CLARY: Now, how do we determine who's going to be -- appear? We in good -- I can tell you in good faith based upon my interview of my clients and their employees or their help, their unpaid employees, as to who is the most informed person on the documents that they had requested. And they contend that that wasn't the right person. Now, how am I supposed to -- how are we ever going to have that deposition? Because they're going to come back and say, they still didn't designate the right person, they didn't designate the right person.

THE COURT: Here's the deal, Mr. Clary.

MR. CLARY: How do we resolve that?

THE COURT: Under Rule 30 you are required to -- you or your client are required to find a person or make a person the most knowledgeable person with respect to the categories that have been delineated in the notice of deposition.

MR. CLARY: So if we have to produce 15 people, we produce 15 people?

THE COURT: That's how it usually works. And then as each one is there they tell which area they have been designated as the PMK for, and then the deposition goes forward. That can be a cumbersome process, but it is the process that Rule 30(b)(6) is designed to insure, because this individual is the one who is binding the corporation. So you're the one who gets to pick, and then the corporation gets -- or the entity gets bound by it. So --

MR. SEGEL: Your Honor, could I -- you want to continue the motion for summary judgment. And I appreciate that. But my concern is that I think we've asked for three different partial summary judgments. We asked for one on the negligent misrepresentation --

THE COURT: I saw that.

MR. SEGEL: -- and --

THE COURT: I read them all.

MR. SEGEL: I'm sure you did. I'm sure you --

THE COURT: I even read the motions first before I read the motion to compel. And I realized, gosh, I should have read the motion to compel first.

MR. SEGEL: If I could have told you, I would have. But I couldn't do that.

THE COURT: Yeah.

MR. SEGEL: The other is -- and that's against Mr. Hahn individually, and then Mr. Clary has the same motion.

The second motion for summary judgment -- or partial summary judgment is against Hahn Surplus as to unjust enrichment.

And then the third is where we're asking this Court to determine that this is not a derivative action based upon the fact that the plaintiffs are seeking -- you've read it.

THE COURT: Yeah. They're saying arguably both derivative and direct. And I'm not really clear on which it is at this point.

MR. SEGEL: Well, me -- and my concern -- we could use some direction, Your Honor. And I don't know if you're prepared to address any portion of these. But the issue of whether this is derivative or not I think has nothing to do with what was produced or not produced. The issue of Hahn Surplus, the record reflects that they received all of this documentation. There's nothing in the requests that would have given them any more information or any further ability to defend this case today.

And the third issue, the motion for summary judgment on the negligent representation I also don't think that --

THE COURT: Well, you're going to lose that one on negligent misrepresentation. I thought they pled it adequately. And since discovery is not completed, I was going to deny it without prejudice for you to renew it following the depositions. But instead I said we'd just continue it to 1 follow it.

MR. SEGEL: I guess we're continuing, then. All right.

THE COURT: So here's the other deal. The issue on the derivative versus direct action, I think your request to disqualify the particular representative plaintiff is a more effective way of handling that issue. And you made that request and asked if I would sign an OST, and I said I would. Because in reading this I am unable to say it's not a derivative action; however, it does appear to me that there may be issues with who the representative is. How's that?

MR. SEGEL: Well, the issue, Your Honor, is that all of the plaintiffs as they sit here today are asking for relief on their own. And then we also have this issue that seems to be -- I don't know how we litigate it, but a prayer that says, plaintiffs request reflect from defendants is [unintelligible], and they ask for damages. There's nothing as in the original complaint where they seek damages on behalf of Kokoweef. And so my recollection of basic pleading was that if you don't pray for it, you don't get it. And if it's not in the prayer, how can this be a derivative action, how can people that are seeking damages for themselves be representatives of the -- all the shareholders when they're seeking to get damages for their own benefit? And that's my issue. I don't know how to address that.

THE COURT: I understand exactly what your issue is. The issue is does the money go back to the corporation when we have new people in charge of the corporation, or does the money go back to the claimants who are making a direct action that they lost -- had damages. I am unclear, after reading the briefing, which this is. It appears to be a mixed group of derivative and direct claims at this point, and I would anticipate that at some time after the 30(b)(6) deposition is completed that there will be a narrowing and tailoring of those issues, because they have to make an election as to whether they are going to pursue the claims on the derivative basis or the direct basis. Because the same claim may be The question is do the proceeds then go back to the entity from a derivative standpoint, or do they go back to the individuals as a direct standpoint. And if I've got to disqualify someone as a representative because they've been bad, then that's a whole complicating factor.

MR. CLARY: Well, the thing that bothers me, Your Honor, is that it's not just the prayer. If you read this huge -- how many pages amended complaint, the actual language of the complaint itself, even if you didn't have the prayer, doesn't state a claim against -- that's a derivative claim.

THE COURT: I understand your position, Mr. Clary.

So, Mr. Segel, it's your choice on whether I give you a date now that's about 30 days after I anticipate the 30(b)(6) being completed, or if you want to just renotice it 1 after the completion of that and attach your motion. 2 I don't know that your motion's going to change. You may want 3 to supplement it with what happens between now and then. 4 5 up to you. MR. SEGEL: Okay. 6 THE COURT: But my intention is not to have it heard 7 until I can get the briefing related to that motion. 8 9 MS. TAYLOR: Your Honor --THE COURT: Hold on. I'm talking to Mr. Segel. 10 MR. SEGEL: Your Honor, I would --11 MR. CLARY: Hold on a minute. 12 MR. SEGEL: Mr. Clary wants me to just renotice it. 13 I'll just do my best and not get my foreclosure mediation 14 scheduled so I can be here. 15 But I do have one issue we need to address, as well, 16 about the pleading. And the issue is these late surreplies. 17 THE COURT: I didn't read it. 18 I appreciate that. But I --MR. SEGEL: 19 THE COURT: It was too late. 20 MR. it in time, I don't read it. So it's better than the rule.

THE COURT: Well, here's the deal. If I don't get

2 slow, but I learn. 3 MR. CLARY: Well, the reply in support of this 4 motion we're arguing right now wasn't on time. 5 THE COURT: Well, there's this flexible -- when the 6 Supreme Court changed the service rules, they didn't change 7 the when notices of motion -- when notices of motions are set, so there is inherently a conflict that I'm currently trying to 8 fix with the new rules that have been discussed at the last 9 two civil judges meetings where Mr. Segel was lucky enough to 10 attend. So we're trying to fix that. But there is by 11 12 necessity of the change that was made two years ago and the 13 lack of change by the Eighth Judicial District Court, a 14 conflict of when reply briefs get filed. And I recognize 15 that, and I'm really trying real hard from an administrative 16 perspective to fix it, but I haven't got it done yet. Well, we wish you luck on doing so. 17 MR. CLARY: 18 THE COURT: Yeah. And once I get it done, then it 19 takes six months for the Supreme Court to approve it. 20 MR. SEGEL: Thank you, Your Honor. 21 THE COURT: Welcome to my world of administration. 22 Anything else on this case today? 23 MR. SEGEL: Ms. Taylor had a comment. 24 THE COURT: Ms. Taylor.

All right. I got that.

MR. SEGEL:

MR. CLARY:

25

Thank you.

Long as I don't have to attend any more meetings, that's good.

MS. TAYLOR: Your Honor, part of my motion to compel asked for an extension.

THE COURT: I know. I'm not moving the dates yet.

MS. TAYLOR: Will I be able to --

THE COURT: You're going to be able to ask me to move the expert dates after you get the documents in 15 days, and then you're going to tell me, Judge, I got the documents, I still need to do Z, Y, and Z, I looked at your schedule, the schedule looks good to me, so if you and Mr. Segel and Mr. Clary are able to stipulate this kind of looks good to me, but I wanted to make sure you got the documents, because I thought the schedule might be too aggressive, depending on what documents you've got.

MS. TAYLOR: Okay. Thank you, Your Honor.

MR. SEGEL: Your Honor, I think once we have the -you hear the summary judgment motion, we may or may not be willing to an extension of time. Thank you.

THE COURT: I'm not really worried about it. It's going to get extended one way or the other if the documents are too voluminous or -- yeah.

MR. SEGEL: I appreciate it. I think we're pretty --

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. SEGEL: Thank you, Your Honor.

Re: Burke, et al. v. Hahn, et al.

Dear Jennifer:

In preparing for the deposition on Friday, it occurred to me that, while we have provided the corporate documents of Kokoweef, Inc. on numerous occasions, because I do not recall the last date that any corporate documents were produced, there may be some minutes of corporate meetings that you do not have.

Accordingly, if you will provide me early tomorrow with a list of the minutes that you do have assembled, I will provide you copies of the minutes that you apparently do no have immediately after receiving your list.

Sincerely yours,

Patrick C. Clary

Re: Burke, et al. v. Hahn, et al.

District Court Case No. A558629 Our File No.: 5081.01

Dear Pat:

I am in receipt of your letter of last night regarding the production of corporate minutes. Corporate minutes were one of the items listed in Plaintiffs' Request for Production No. 15. Accordingly, I would have expected that all corporate minutes would have been produced and delineated as part of your response to Request No. 15. After reviewing the index attached to Kokoweef's Responses to Plaintiffs' Request for Production and Kokoweef's prior document disclosures, it appears that no corporate minutes have ever been produced by Kokoweef pursuant to NRCP 16.1, NRCP 34, or Judge Gonzales' Order on Plaintiffs' Motion to Compel.

Despite Kokoweef's failure to comply with NRCP 16.1, NRCP 34, or Judge Gonzales' Order on Plaintiffs' Motion to Compel in regard to corporate minutes as requested in Plaintiffs' Request for Production No. 15, I discussed with my clients the extent to which they may have corporate minutes. I am informed that they have no corporate minutes dated after August 2007.

REQUEST NO. 15: Any business agreements, corporate documents, organizational documents, articles of incorporation, by-laws, minutes, joint venture agreements, operating agreements, partnership agreements, limited liability company agreements, documents amending any such documents, or other such similar documents or writings pertaining to any type of organization.

SUPPLEMENTAL RESPONSE: Although voluminous corporate documents were previously produced by So-called Nominal Defendant Kokoweef, Inc. ("Kokoweef"), upon inquiry by the undersigned counsel to the Plaintiff counsel of what copies minutes of Kokoweef corporate minutes the Plaintiffs' possess (especially given that Plaintiff Ted R. Burke was an officer and director of Kokoweef until March 26, 2008), the Plaintiff's counsel replied that she and her clients "have no corporate minutes dated after July 2007" and requested that "a complete set of corporate minutes dated August 2007, and beyond" be produced; accordingly, copies of all such corporate minutes and written consents in lieu of minutes are hereby produced as Exhibit A attached hereto.

REQUEST NO. 24: All shareholder ledgers, stock certificates, and any other information delineating the number of shares sold, the identity of shareholders, the amounts paid for the same, and the current value of the shares.

SUPPLEMENTAL RESPONSE: While all such documents were produced at Kokoweef's office located at 2908 East Lake Mead Blvd., North Las Vegas, Nevada, on April 16, 19, 20, and 21, 2010, and scanned there (although copies the electronic discs thereof which were supposed to be provided to the Defendants' counsel have not been received to date) except for the stockholders' file for Peter and Lisa Freeman, which

Compliance with Court Order regarding Motion to Compel

Dear Mr. Clary:

Thank you for your Supplemental Response to Plaintiffs' Requests for Production (the "Supplement"), which was hand-delivered to our office at 4:17pm yesterday afternoon. The Supplement provides documents and written responses to Request Nos. 15 and 24. However, this Supplement still does not cure the deficiencies outlined in our letter of yesterday.

For example, your response to Request No. 15 claims that "voluminous corporate documents were previously produced" by Kokoweef. However, neither your April 14, 2010 Responses to Plaintiffs Requests for Production, nor the Supplement provide copies of these "voluminous corporate documents", as detailed in Request No. 15. The evasive and incomplete responses in your Supplement, along with the entirety of the evasive and incomplete responses in your April 14, 2010 Responses, which we outlined yesterday, compels us to again request Kokoweef properly supplement its April 14, 2010 Responses, and the newly received

Re: Burke, et al. v. Hahn, et al.

District Court Case No. A558629

Our File No.: 5081.01

Compliance with Court Order regarding Motion to Compel

Dear Messrs. Clary and Segel:

You and your client have still failed to fully comply with Judge Gonzales' Order granting Plaintiffs' Motion to Compel further production of documents. Your Responses to Plaintiffs' Request for Production are evasive and incomplete, your production of documents is incomplete, and last night Mr. Clary faxed me a letter, after hours, stating it had just "occurred" to him that Kokoweef had failed to produce all of its corporate minutes. Further, our clients have just incurred substantial costs to copy more than 19,000 records at Kokoweef's office over the past few weeks, and for you to suddenly recall that you failed to produce all of the relevant records, twenty four (24) hours before the deposition of your client's custodian of records, is inexcusable. As such, we will not be going forward with the deposition scheduled for tomorrow, April 30, 2010, as it would be a further waste of our time and our clients' money. Once Kokoweef has

LAS VEGAS

ALBUQUERQUE

fully complied with the Court's Order, we will re-notice this deposition so that it can be completed in one session, and with all of the court-ordered documents.

Therefore, we are requesting that Kokoweef properly comply with NRCP 16.1, NRCP 34 and Judge Gonzales' Order no later than May 10, 2010. Should you and your client fail to comply, we will be forced to file a request for an Order to Show Cause why Kokoweef should not be held in contempt of Judge Gonzales' Order Granting Plaintiffs' Motion to Compel.

The specifics of Kokoweef's non-compliance follows. Kokoweef has failed to produce documents responsive to Plaintiffs' Requests for Production of Documents that exist at the Kokoweef office and that were either identified during the deposition of Laurie Wright or identified during the onsite inspection and copying of documents allegedly responsive to Req. No. 24. This belief is confirmed by your letter of April 28, 2010, sent after 6:00 p.m., stating that Kokoweef had not produced its corporate minutes.

Additionally, in reviewing Kokoweef's Responses to Plaintiffs' Requests for Production of Documents (the "Responses"), including the Kokoweef Directory of Documents Produced (the "Directory"), it appears that:

- 1) documents identified in the Directory have not been produced;
- 2) documents previously produced with bates-numbers have not been listed in the Directory; or
- 3) that documents previously dumped on Plaintiffs have neither been bates-stamped nor identified as responsive to each of Plaintiffs' Requests for Production as required by NRCP 34.

In analyzing the Responses and the Directory, we reviewed the following:

- A disc titled as "Kokoweef Inc. Taylor Copy, 7-2009, COR" (the "July disc");
- A disc titled "Kokoweef Inc. Files Copy for Jennifer L. Taylor, 10-2009, included: KI 09 Paperwork, Receipts, KI 08 Tax Return, KI Fixed Asset Report, Other Tax Information" (the "October disc");
- 3) The Quick Books disc produced to counsel for Plaintiffs on October 5, 2009; and
- 4) A disc titled "KI Files 4-12-10, Paid in 07 Receipts, Added, KI Info: Certs, Transfers, Shareholders" (the "April disc");
- 5) The NRCP 16.1 Disclosures by all Defendants.
- Unidentified documents in a series of six binders which are not organized in any way to comply with the Court's Order or respond to Plaintiffs'

4/29/10 2:53 $JG 5081\5081,01\e\$JG0876,WPD

Requests for Production, and which have no bates-stamps or other identifying documents, no custodian of records affidavit or other document indicating authenticity, and no pleading containing the signature of any counsel accompanies these documents;

The Responses remain incomplete, and documents identified in the Directory have not been produced

The Responses remain significantly incomplete, and in comparing the Responses and the Directory, it is patently clear that documents have not been produced.

For example, in regard to Response No. 15, which was the subject of correspondence earlier today, Kokoweef responds:

"There are no joint venture agreements, operating agreements, partnership agreements, limited liability company agreements known to exist. See Response to Request No. 1 above."

When you look at Response to Request No. 1, it states:

"All requested documents have been heretofore produced and delivered to the Plaintiffs' attorney and, except for the 2008 Return, are identified in the Directory of Documents Produced (the "Directory") attached hereto as Exhibit A and incorporated herein by this reference."

When you refer to the Directory, there is nothing in the "Matches Request #" column for Request No. 15, and the only item which is delineated as "Matches Request #" for Request No. 1 is "EIN_07_tax_returns", which is not responsive to Request No. 15, which sought:

"Any business agreements, corporate documents, organizations documents, articles of incorporation, by-laws, minutes, joint venture agreements, operating agreements, partnership agreements, limited liability company agreements, documents amending any such documents, or other such similar documents or writings pertaining to any type of organization."

This non-responsive cross-referencing is systemic in the Responses. As a further example, Req. No. 2 seeks, in summary, banking records. Kokoweef's responses states:

"There were and are no savings accounts, money market accounts, time deposit accounts, retirement accounts, pension accounts, profits sharing accounts, stock purchase loan accounts, annuity accounts, stock accounts, bond accounts, ready assets accounts, mutual funds accounts, loan accounts or mortgage accounts. All other requested documents have previously been produced on computer discs heretofore delivered to Plaintiffs' attorneys and are identified in the Directory."

(Emphasis added). However, when you review the Directory, there is only one entry indicating "Matches Request #" 2 that has actually been produced on either the July, October or April discs. For your ease of reference, I have attached notes from our review of the Directory showing the scant number of documents that were actually "previously" produced on computer discs. Any documents identified in the July, October or April discs have been noted in handwriting.

The same deficiency exists in your Responses to Request Nos. 3, 4, 5, 7, 8, 18 and 20. The Response to Request No. 3 refers me back to the Response to Request No. 2. The Response to Request No. 4, refers me back to Request No. 3. The Response to Request No. 5 refers me back to Request No. 3. The Response to Req. No. 18 refers me to the Response to Req. No. 7. The Response to Req. Nos. 7 and 8 refer me to the Response to Req. No. 26, which refers me back to the Response to Req. No. 2, for which documents identified have not been produced. Similarly, the Response to Req. No. 20 refers me back to Req. No. 2. And, when I review the Directory, Kokoweef has only produced a scant number of the documents identified in the Directory as responsive to Request Nos. 2, 3-5, 7-8, 18, and 26.

Response to Request No. 13 is also non-compliant. It the response to Request No. 13, Kokoweef responds:

"All documents requested have been heretofore produced as set forth in Response No. 2 and are identified in the Directory. See also Responses to Request Nos. 14 and 24."

If I refer to the Directory, the only entry in the "Matches Request #" Column that refers to Req. No. 13 is the Mayan Gold correspondence. Are documents identified in the Response and Directory as responsive to Request No. 2 also, then, responsive to Request No. 13? If so, they have not been produced.

Kokoweef's Response to Req. No. 21 is similarly problematic. Kokoweef responds that "no documents exist", in regard to prepaid expenses for Kokoweef, "except with respect to payments relating to mining claims and insurance." Yet, no expenses related to mining claims and insurance are produced or referred to in the Directory.

Further, Kokoweef's Responses to Req. Nos. 23 and 25 are also non-compliant. The Response to Req. No. 23 simply states, in regard to a request for production of mining claims, "All requested documents have been heretofore produced and delivered to the Plaintiffs' attorneys." Yet, the Response to Req. No. 23 doesn't even provide a reference to the Directory or to a bates-stamped document. The Response to Req. No. 25 presents the same issue of non-compliance. In response to a request for all documents related to the "Agreement and Plan of Reorganization", Kokoweef simply states: "All requested documents have been heretofore produced and delivered to the Plaintiffs' attorneys." However, there is no bates-stamp reference and no reference in the Directory.

Kokoweef has not complied with Request No. 14. As discussed throughout this letter, Plaintiffs are aware of several other "stockholder lists or ledgers outlining the name, address, phone number, and number of shares held for each stockholder from any time." Laurie Wright testified that her father kept a disc reflecting this information in his Hahn's World of Surplus office safe. Two additional lists were identified during the on-site copying at Kokoweef. Therefore, the Response is not accurate or compliant.

Further, as you are aware, Plaintiffs had to go on site at the Kokoweef office to obtain copies of these documents. Plaintiffs were made aware, for the first, time that Kokoweef's "time constraints" prevented production of these documents on April 13, 2010 at approximately 3:30pm. Plaintiffs' counsel are still reviewing the nearly 19,000 pages that they copied, at their sole expense. Had Kokoweef apprised Plaintiffs' that it intended to permit "inspection" and not produce these documents prior to the eve of the April 14, 2010 Court ordered production deadline, Plaintiffs' counsel could have obtained access to review these documents earlier. As it is, Plaintiffs' counsel are still reviewing these documents to determine if there are any deficiencies in the documents copied.

Additionally, in reviewing the documents produced, it does not appear that records from creditors, as delineated in Request No. 7, such as insurance providers and telephone companies, were produced. Our request requires that phone bills be produced, not only for Kokoweef and its predecessor in interest, EIN, but for those phones of Hahn's World of Surplus, Larry Hahn, Laurie Wright or any other persons or entities whose phones have been used for Kokoweef, and/or its predecessor in interest, EIN, from 2004 to present. No such documents have been produced in the Responses.

A significantly larger volume of documents were observed at the Kokoweef offices than have been produced to Plaintiffs

In spending three and a half days, between 4/16/01 and 4/21/10 at the Kokoweef offices, it appears that there are far more documents than have been produced. Since we were only permitted on site to copy shareholder records, I did not even request inspection of the numerous binders, bound record books, envelopes and boxes of documents I observed in the office. Specifically, I observed the following in plain view at the Kokoweef offices:

I. A closet containing four long shelves along the main part of the closet, three smaller shelves at the back of the closet, and boxes stacked along the floor of the closet.

- a) Top shelf: 16 binders
  - 1) Co 1,2,3

III. Shelf above desk located next to lateral file cobinet:

a) Five (5) binders each denoted as "Stock Certificates and Ledgers".

Additionally, as you are aware, the shareholder records that we copied on site were identified by numbers tabbed on the side of the folders. Wanda, who was supervising the onsite copying, volunteered that there were spread sheets that cross-referenced shareholders by name and by file number. She asked if I wanted a copy and I said that I would discuss it with you. I am requesting, therefore, a copy of these records as they are responsive to Request Nos. 14 and 24. They were kept on the desk below the shelves with the 5 binders denoted as "stock certificates and ledger".

Documents identified during the deposition of Laurie Wright or set out in Plaintiffs' Requests for Production have not been produced

In reviewing the documents produced with your disk, there are still documents that were identified by your PMK in October which have still not been produced. For example, Laurie Wright testified that there was a box of original receipts that were not "readable" and therefore not been produced. Additionally, in your prior productions, there are receipts that have been folded over or otherwise physically altered so that they have become unreadable. We, therefore, request that the original receipts, as stored in the ordinary course of business, and as described by Laurie Wright, be produced. Again, if that means that you produce a box of receipts you claim to be "unreadable", so be it. If you are uncomfortable producing these records to us, my suggestion, again, is that they be stored at a document depository such as Litigation Services and Technology. Again, this request is for Kokoweef, as defined in our Requests for Production of Documents, which includes its predecessor in interest, EIN.

Further, Laurie Wright testified that she had not been asked to scan documents for a while, yet, none of the documents produced as part of the April disc or identified in the Directory post date her deposition of more than 6 months ago. Additionally, it does not appear that the documents produced on the April disc or identified in the Directory fill in gaps from last documents produced.

Additionally, during her testimony, Laurie Wright testified that there were numerous documents in a safe in the office of Larry Hahn that is actually part of the Hahn's World of Surplus. She testified that documents in that safe included "proof journals" and various computer disks, including disks of share holder records. Wright Dep. 118-120. It does not appear that these documents or disks were produced. Further, while reviewing the documents shareholder documents, at least two of the records, folders numbered 447 and 459 had handwritten notes indicating: "paper work in safe." Therefore, it is clear that not all documents were produced or even made available for inspection.

Finally, your response to Request No. 14 states: "All documents in response to this Request which are hereby produced on the New Disc and are also identified in the Directory". However, as noted above, there are at least two other stockholder lists or ledgers outlining the shareholder located in Kokoweef's offices, and at least one disc of information located in Larry Hahn's office safe, as testified to by your PMK. Therefore, Plaintiffs' request that the Responses be properly supplemented and these additional documents produced.

Documents previously produced in the April or October Discs have not been listed in the Directory

In reviewing the April and October discs, the following documents, which had been produced on those discs, were not identified in the Responses or the Directory.

- EINBR 1 of 253
- KIBS 1 of 550
- KICD 1 of 95
- EINCD 1 of 170
- DD 1 of 38
- EINF 1 of 42
- Invoices 1 of 7
- KIF 1 of 32
- Misc, 1 of 5
- EINRJ 1 of 86
- KI Rec 05 1 of 16
- EIN Citi CC 1 of 28
- KIC CUS 1 of 32
- KI Rev 2 of 8
- KI Rec 1 of 74
- KI Rec 07 1 of 54
- FA 1 of 3

Does this mean that none of these documents respond to any of the Requests? If that is the case, please let us know. If not, Kokoweef's Responses need to be supplemented to include these documents.

Documents have not been bates-stamped nor identified as responsive to a particular Request for Production

As noted above, in reviewing documents from this litigation, there are numerous binders of unauthenticated, unidentified documents that appear to be Kokoweef or EIN records. However, they have no bates-stamps and have not been identified in any NRCP 16.1 disclosure of Kokoweef's Directory as set forth in the Responses. Yet, on several Responses, Kokoweef continues to assert that all documents have been produced, with no other reference to a specific document. Such a simplistic assertion runs afoul of NRCP 34 and Judge Gonazales' Order. Any document that Kokoweef believes is responsive to one of Plaintiffs' Requests must be identified in the Responses.

Further, the Stock Certificates identified as "KI Issued Certificates" produced on the April disc are not bates-stamped, and are produced in such as way as to provide no information at all as to the number of pages in each document. This dumping of documents on the April disc provides no way to subsequently identify them or ensure that a complete set has been produced.

As noted above, as a result of this non-compliance, Plaintiffs have no choice but to vacate tomorrow's deposition until such time as Kokoweef has fully complied with the Court's Order. In the event that Kokoweef does not properly supplement its Responses by May 10, 2010 to comply with NRCP 16.1, NRCP 34 and Judge Gonzales' Order, Plaintiffs will be forced to seek an Order to Show Cause on this continued non-compliance.

Thank you in advance for your time and prompt attention to this matter.

Very truly yours,

ROBERTSON & VICK, LLP

ENNIFER L. TAYLO

Re: Burke, et al. v. Hahn, et al.

Dear Jennifer:

This is my best attempt to respond to your monstrosity of a second letter to me dated April 29, 2010 ("your 11-page letter"). Your 11-page letter is in sharp contrast to the first letter you wrote to me on April 29, 2010 in response to my letter to you of April 28, 2010. In your first April 29th letter, you indicated that, in response to my inquiry, neither you nor your clients had any copies of corporate minutes of Kokoweef, Inc. ("Kokoweef") for the period of August 2007 to date, so I supplied copies thereof to you also on April 29th in order that the continued deposition of "the corporate designee on the custody and keeping of the records of Kokoweef" could proceed as scheduled on August  $30^{\rm th}$ . Nevertheless, and in direct violation of the Court's Order Regarding Plaintiff's Motion to Compel entered and filed on April 22, 2010 ("the Subject Order"), which all counsel had expressly approved, unilaterally and at the last minute cancelled the deposition. Thus, it is you, rather than my client or me, who is not in compliance with the Subject Order.

Contrary to your erroneous allegations, I have acted in good faith in attempting to get all documents to you that are covered by the subject Order and previous to that in producing the documents that were covered by the request for production of documents contained within your previous Notice of Deposition served on August 14, 2009.

What you have forgotten or choose to ignore is that voluminous documents were produced during the so-called "audit" period (although there was never any audit) to your predecessor counsel, Neil Beller, before the filing of the so-called derivative complaint in this case, and then additional documents were, as I recall, also produced. Do you have copies of those documents? Do you even know what they consist of? If you do, did you ever bate-stamp them? If not, why not? We should not have to produce these same documents a second time.

Jennifer L. Taylor, Esq. Robertson & Vick, LLP May 7, 2010 - Page Two

Since it is obvious to me that you have not acted in good faith during the discovery process, I agree with Nelson Segel that the purpose of your continuing conduct of harassment, which has and still consists of a "fishing expedition" not permitted under applicable law, is to overwhelm Kokoweef and its counsel as well as Mr. Hahn and his affiliate defendant and their counsel and ultimately to destroy Kokoweef.

With respect to the second full paragraph of your 11-page letter, your belief stated therein is incorrect. I know that corporate minutes are covered by the overly broad description contained in Request No. 14. The fact is that we have previously produced corporate minutes, so I properly inquired of you what corporate minutes you requested and you responded by advising me of the corporate minutes that you stated you and your clients that they didn't have and demanded that they be produced, and I complied.

It remains to be seen whether documents identified in the Directory (as defined by you) have not been produced. There are, of course, documents that were previously produced before you requested that subsequent documents be bated-stamped which were not bate-stamped. Again, why didn't you bate-stamp them yourself? No documents were ever "dumped" on Plaintiffs as you wrongfully allege, and they were identified at the time they were produced. Either they were produced to your previous counsel, who never objected to the form of productions made to him, or, if they were produced after you and your firm came into the case and not bated-stamped, either you weren't paying attention or you never requested then that they be bate-stamped.

With respect to your diatribe in the middle of page 3 of your 11-page letter, the responses are correct because (1) there are no "joint venture agreements operating agreements, partnership agreements, limited liability company agreements" and (2) the only document that we believe could fall into this category would be the idiot agreement that was given little or no consideration with the phoney company, Mayan Gold, that Ted Burke introduced and proposed.

Responding to the first two paragraphs on page 4 of your 11-page letter, the reason that the documents you reference are "Scant" in number is that that is all that there are! The rest of your comments don't make sense. Suffice it to say that, except for documents produced when you were not counsel, all of the documents that have been produced on computer discs are set forth in the Directory to the best of our knowledge, information and belief.

Your comments on the bottom of page 4 and the top of page 5 of your 11-page letter are also misleading, because the expense payments made are recorded in the disc containing Kokoweef's Quick Books program. I am informed that the list of mining claims, which is a matter of public record, was produced on a one-page hard document that was provided to you but was not on a disc and not bate-stamped. If you can't find it, we will give you another copy. The only "reorganization documents," which consist of the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization dated November 20, 2005 and the Closing Agreement, Assignment and Receipt dated August 31, 2006, have been in your clients' possession for years; otherwise, you wouldn't even know about the transactions covered by them. In case you haven't reviewed the corporate minutes we produced last week, copies of both are included therein.

With respect to the second paragraph on page 5 of your 11-page letter, the referenced documents are contained in the "19,000 documents" (according to you) that you scanned and placed on discs. You will have to make your own lists of those documents. Incidentally, you still haven't provided us with copies of those discs as you promised. We will anticipate receiving the disks on or before Friday, May 14, 2010. If there is some reason that they cannot be produced, please let me know as soon as possible.

As to the last full paragraph on page 5 of your 11-page letter, see "QUICK BOOKS." As to documents of Mr. Hahn and his affiliated company, you will have to speak to Nelson Segel.

Referring to page 6 off your 11-page letter, I have been unable to speak to Laurie Wright as she is, and was prior to the delivery of you letter, out of town for her employer, but we believe that all of the documents listed as I a) 1-16) are in the discs supplied with the response to request for production of documents served April 14, 2010. Ms. Wright is returning to Las Vegas on or about Monday, May 10, 2010; however, as stated below I will be out of town that entire week; ; therefore, I will not be able to speak to her about this issue until I return.

As to I b) 1), the documents contained therein, consisting of documents reflecting visitors to the mine and letters from old stockholders all from 1988. Documents in I b) 2-3) consist of duplicates work sheets that were scanned by you in the stockholders' files. We did not produce item no I b) 4), because it is merely a corporate form book from 1986 and contains no corporate documents of Kokoweef. As to "I b) 5-6)," these records are included in the Directory as documents bate-stamped as "SIN" and clearly described as for '03 and '04. No. I b) 7) was not produced because it is a virtually empty binder containing three pages that mean nothing. No. I b) 8) are documents produced at the evidentiary hearing and are clearly identified as stated in the Directory. No. I b) 9) was not produced because they are court documents filed in this case. No. I b) 10) contains documents that are identified in the Directory. Nos. I

No. I d) 1) contains maps, the 1993 newsletter, a geological report by Hewitt, and a parts catalogue, which were not produced because they were not requested. No. I d) 2) contains drill rig information, which was not produced because it was not requested. No. I d) 3) contains duplicate copies from the bank that were subpoenaed in this case in 2009 which were not produced because you already have them! No. I d) 4) consist of the green and burgundy books containing the Quick Books records that are identified in the Directory, while the box contains copies of documents which Ted Burke put on the unauthorized "Kokoweef.com" web site, which were not produced because they were not requested. No. I d) 5 is an empty black binder. No. I d) 6) contains miscellaneous court documents in this case. No. I d) 7) contains a copy of an assay report, which Ted Burke possesses, and extra copies of documents that have been previously produced.

I e) "Column 1:" No. 1) contains maps, which were not produced because they were not requested. No. 2) contains receipts for 2003-2006, which

b) 11) and 12) were not produced because they are books containing corporate minutes for 1884-1990 and 1990-1997, respectively. Nos. I) b) 13-21) were not produced because they were not requested, provided, however, that I agree that proxies (although not specifically named in the Request) may be interpreted as corporate records that should have been produced, but, accordingly, if you want copies of these proxies we will produce them, , since there are thousands of them, you will have to make the same type of arrangements as you recently did to scan the voluminous shareholder files.

No. I c) 1-3), consisting of (1) of photographs of rock, (2) assays, and (3) a safety book for BLM No. I c) 4) contains an assay, which was not produced because it was not requested and a document relating to Mayan Gold, which is referred to above. No. I) c) 5) contains documents relating to a wind/solar system, which was not produced because it was not requested. No. I c) 6) contains documents relating to underground procedure, which was not produced because it was not requested. No. I c) 7) contains photographs of a drill rig, which was not produced because they were not requested. No. I c) 8) contains blank, unused stock certificates of Explorations Incorporated of Nevada ("EIN"), which was not produced because they were not requested. No. I c) 9) are in the Director so described. Nos. I c) 10-13) speak for themselves as copies of court documents in this lawsuit. No. I c) 16) contains unfiled and duplicate court documents in this case. No. I c) 17) contains a photograph of the mail-out of the stockholders' meeting for '09 an operating manual, solar information, report on Drill Hole 13, and an explosive permit, which were not produced because they were not requested.

are set forth in the Directory. No. 3) contains tools, which were not produced because they were not requested.

- I e) "Column 2:" The documents in no. 1 are identified in the Directory. No. 2 contains extra copies of old newsletters, which were not produced because they were not requested. No. 3 contains obsolete miscellaneous papers relating to mining claims covering the period 1991-2000, which were not produced because they were not requested. Nos. 4-6) are identified in the Directory.
- I e) "Two Boxes next to shelf:" No. 1) is empty. No. 2) contain receipts that were produced and are listed in the Directory.
- I e) The "Box at back of closet with Binders & Books" contains old Mining manuals, books and catalogues, which were not produced because they were not requested.
- I f) "Shelves at back of closet:" No. 2 contains paid receipts covering 2003-2006 which are included in the Directory.
- No. II a) contains reference materials, tools, empty file folders, and old unfiled, unorganized documents, which were not produced because they were not requested. No. II b) contains shareholder records that were scanned by you. With respect to II c), the bottom drawer is empty, because its contents set forth on the label on the drawer were moved up to the top drawer, and those shareholders records were scanned by you, except for blank Kokoweef office forms remaining in the bottom drawer, which were not produced because they were not requested.
- III a), as stated, contains "Stock Certificates and Ledgers," which were scanned by you except for returned EIN stock certificates that were exchanged for Kokoweef stock certificates, but the information contained there is set forth in the stockholder files, which were scanned by you.
- I have no objection to your receiving a copy of the spread sheets, provided, however, that you understand that they are not as current and up-to-date as the information that you received in the shareholder files.

With respect to the "unreadable receipts" referred to in the second full paragraph on page 9 of your 11-page letter, during the so-called "audit" period, Mr. Beller made arrangements with Kokoweef for removal of various corporate petty cash receipts and had them scanned. There were certain of those receipts that were not readable because of the passage of time, and, therefore, they were separated from the readable receipts. Those unreadable receipts were apparently not returned and cannot now be located. We will continue our efforts, however, to find them and will advise if we do.

Jennifer L. Taylor, Esq. Robertson & Vick, LLP May 7, 2010 - Page Six

Once again Laurie Wright is not available right now; consequently, I am not able at this time to comment on the content of the third and fourth full paragraphs of your 11-page letter. Nevertheless, I can assure that, with respect to the remainder of the preceding set forth at the top of page 10 of your 11-page letter, there are no Kokoweef documents in any safe, where none have been since on or about September 3, 2008.

With respect to the first full paragraph on page 10 of your 11-page letter, I am informed that the two shareholder lists were offered to you when you were in Kokoweef's office and that your reply was that you would ask Nelson Segel for the lists. Did you ask Nelson? If not, are you now asking me for them? If so, you can have them. I don't appreciate your misleading commentary that would suggest that we were deliberately withholding them from you.

With respect to the last half of page 10 of your 11-page letter, my comments above regarding Laurie Wrights being unavailable also apply.

I cannot figure out what you mean or what you want me to do in the generalized comments contained in the first and second full paragraphs on page 11 of your 11-page letter. As to the third full paragraph on page 10, your continuing threats and your arbitrary and unauthorized deadline of May 10, 2010, when in fact it is you, not the undersigned, who is violation of the aforesaid Order of the court, are also not appreciated.

as I alluded to above, on Monday, May 10, 2010, I will be flying early in the morning to Washington, D. C. to attend the CARE National Conference and Celebration and won't return to Las Vegas until the following Monday, May 17, 2010. Please govern yourself accordingly.

Sincerely yours,

atrick C. Clarv
